Between The Lines

It Won't Be Me

Loser

Ain't no surprise you got nowhere to go
Ain't no surprise you got nothing to show
Nobody's worried over nothing for you
Cause you only got one way to go

You got nobody you can call on for help
I guess that's what you get for being yourself
It's not appealing and it just won't sell
The only thing you do is repel

Chorus:

You're a loser and you know it
And you can't help but to show it
You're a loser gotta face it
And I know it's a drag but there's no turning back

Why do you always have to lie to yourself
You ain't no good at fooling nobody else
Just give it up and take a look at yourself
And tell me what you see in there

Chorus

If I hurt your feelings
It makes it more appealing
Just to know you hurt at all

You do the scratching cause you planted the itch
You never can seem to get out of the ditch
I really hate it that you'll never be rich
But it is what it is what it is

Chorus

Bad Mood Rising

Chorus:

Gotta get up gotta get up gotta get going

Gotta get up gotta get up gotta get gone

Every time I think I'm out they pull me right back in

Every time I think about it gets under my skin

Chorus

I can't sit around and think about this for too long

I might end up on the brink of doing something wrong

Can't get up, can't stay down

Nothing lost, nothing found

Where I'm Not Wanted

I don't hang around where I'm not wanted
Just show me the road and I'll be on it

I don't need no sympathy
I just wanna be where I can be me
I don't need no advice from you
Though I know you think I do

I've made it fine this far undaunted
I don't hang around where I'm not wanted

I never make the same mistake twice
It takes a lot of sacrifice
Not to go around in circles
Trying to re-jump those hurdles

I don't let myself be haunted
I don't hang around where I'm not wanted

You can call it what you want to
That's what I would probably do
If I ever felt the need inside
To tell you what to do

I've been accused of many things
Some of which the truth still rings
Standing up for what you feel
Will cause some things to be revealed

If I'm wrong at least I'm honest
I don't hang around where I'm not wanted

Hate To Love You

I hate to love you
And that's the truth
I often wonder
Why I do

But it's a weakness
And I'm to blame
For never leaving
A losing game

I will hate myself tomorrow
If I stay with you tonight
But I can't refuse and I know
It'll never be alright

I tried to fight it
But what's the use
I can't defend it
Got no excuse

You say you want me
But that's a lie
You only need me
To get by

Til you find somebody better
Better suited for your needs
And I knew that it would not be
Anybody that could see..

..what you are with no disguise
When there's nothing to conceal
Nowhere left to hide in Nothing there to hide what's real

I hate to love you
I hate the truth
And what I go through..for loving you

Crashing By Design

Did my crime
Did my time
Stuck it out
And toed the line

Came back strong
Before too long
Hung around
And things went wrong

Got no one to blame on
The fault is mine
It's a case of crashing by design

Overplayed another hand
Overstayed and over ran

Now I see and now I know
What you reap is what you sow

Got no cause for regret
Not this time
Cause I know I'm crashing by design

Live and learn they say
Live another day
If you never learn you will crash and burn

Did my crime
Did my time
Stuck around
Toed the line

Got no one to blame on
It's all mine
Just a case of crashing by design

Fall From Grace

Fall from grace, on your face
Can't get going, stuck in place

Words in haste, that won't erase
Losing things you can't replace

Maybe you've had better days
Anyone can lose their place

Look around and don't stay down
Get yourself up off the ground

Falling down is no disgrace
If you get back in the race
Don't look back, it never pays
Look ahead, stay in the race

Ignore the pain that tries in vain
To make it rain on your parade

Stick it out when there is doubt
That is what it's all about

Can't you see that it can be
Another opportunity
To rise above the den of thieves
That try to steal your destiny

Don't let them in, don't let them win
Find your power from within
Fall from grace is no disgrace
Get yourself back in the race

Unheeded Warnings

I've told you time and time again
Now I'm gonna show you that I meant what I said

I just can't take this place no more
I never knew that I could be so bored half to death
Can you hear?

I've got my things together now
I'm getting out of here, I don't care how anymore

Destination anywhere
Anywhere as long as it ain't here, I'll be for
Can you hear? Can you hear?

Chorus:
Unheeded warnings
Fall on deaf ears
Fools never listen to what they hear
(2) You've never listened
To what you hear

You've got no time to make a scene
There isn't any time for in-betweens anyway

I've got to blow this loser town
I think I'd rather die than stick around one more day
Can you hear? Can you hear?

Gonna leave here running, leave here running
Gonna leave this town
And there'll be one less zero hanging around

Between The Lines

We've been going in circles for a long long time
To not see it coming you would have to be blind

There ain't nothing to say that ain't been said before
But let me make it as clear as I can to be sure

Chorus:

If you think that it'll be different
If you think that it'll be fine
If you're thinking that
You'd better read between the lines

Maybe we've been fooling ourselves for too long
Sometimes it's a habit just to keep hanging on

There's a lot to be said for knowing when to go
I may not know it all, but this much I know

Chorus

We can't stay together
If it don't get better
We can't do this anymore

Chorus

It Won't Be Me

Looking at myself begins a mystery
Why I'm here at all waiting patiently
To undo and fix your next catastrophe
It won't be me

I have tried to figure out so many things
Why I always give, never to receive
Someone else will have to carry your debris
It won't be me

I've been going the long way around
I've been walking on my knees
And there's nothing here but jagged ground
For as far as I can see

Soon you'll look around at where I used to be Just an empty space is all that you will see
You may come around and face reality
But it won't be me
No it won't be me..anymore
