

when im trying to walk in mothers law
fear and frustration
scaring me
makes me blind with unbound joy humans like satellites turning the way
to home sacrificing but unheard darkened coats with limits in a shell begging for standing proud why on the top
core is down here
hungers to humble
in search for needing trust
come complete complexity
in harmony
mixed in kitchens velvet love lashes my soul arguments for our unity neverending
purity calming in our arrangements to include more movements bounding sailing to solitude reenter the mutual feelings of eternity

beautiful message

i heard her talking about me
delighted feelings dreams to wish found a band parting us
lot of work to do embracing her for the final dot courage is sendd
the will to her examinations neon, so sweet in the deeper core like her

gifted is the universal
bondage carrying us so soon
again
the frightened feeling leaving home
to run back kisses to swear tasting lips
blood runs down the table
stars reborn searching the mind flights to do to harm the darkness
guessing thoughts moving on hovering bee searching
a heart to bound to live for trust to feel irritating sound
around the wood enlightenment surrounding the ring holy moment embrace
feel true
be soul be sound
moving on helping us words so deeply forgotten remind the whole
what a great idea rather diving
in the sea
swimming
from island to island polishing suggestions deeper in the heart
a secret velvet
beauty observing humming see eagles in the sky glowing

to realize our dream of unity
for the bees
the toads
the lovers
end cause of beginning neverending trust to the complexity of galactic love neverending
eternal wishing married couple family
home

Lips

missing her
missing the kisses
the breath on my neck
her skin
her heart
her soul
the whole
missing
luck is leading me to her shore
sensitive beach Tree's growing hearts delicious coconut resting, growing wood is near palms of loyalty healed earth light shimmers
in the night
leading to the center of her heart
bunch of organ pipes burning up to the clouds mutual mission exploring the back area a desert is close unseen fire jungle tree at the left roaring tigress
blood sparkling eyes harmony beneath

that velvet tree
comfort
near the hole mountains in sight jumping too far
home is calling running back to my tiny lake
soft torture enjoy the core wanting bosom waiting for the wind carrying me back to that gorgeous shore floating river equalizing myself
pain hurts
again
practise kissing her delicious lips after-maybe
core of my desert
home

finally i caught it all like to enjoy the magic ball dancing up in our sky
rather dive in not to fly
for swarm its needless to do dreaming bout
no big shoe
where natures given post to come
we really enjoy exercising
in having fun
cause when we're close we feel unbound if fear is there we dont want to found travelling through my inner being if love flows
we jump off to the ceiling happy, happy
proud we are shes the biggest wish my inner star

in trust we're bound mothers hiding there never reach it or catch that sphere cause love is all i need to feel sometimes able turn the wheel
we're my star is born
ready to enlight
but not for struggle
not for fight when angels high the core appears when universe is calling i feel one of my biggest fears
the tears we have lost with our own might better love her there is no fight the spark is like the velvet
of sound secrets calling to be found similar wisdom shared in time but also not to give her my only divine
i need it later when death appears to pay the skipper to loose my fears what will there be cant guess it now
i rather enjoy earth dancing in the show natures a beauty
i know it clear but im bounded a bit to good old fear wood seems to calm in time to heal for my inner not to kneel
pleasure pulls me not to waste when i kiss her i love the taste her throat is beauty touching it well it is so true
were made to stay
now i close

for what there'll be want to leave never sometimes flee
i found my home theres joy to do what about your dream
who are you

timelapse in eternity

when she speaks so clear to me
want to catch her pushing us free tricky to listen
her silent words what is happening
what a curse
a stigma found departing us
heart to dusty
full of rust fear is leading back again
got now power for a stand want to rush so quick to her rather calm down rather learn complex feelings is what we feel sign of unity never flee
want to stay
so close to her now she dresses and i do wear when i am strong so nice our love but when im down
i feel the loss but sometimes it happens that my will is to strong wilderness rules
is it where i belong cant guess it right afraid to tell calming down
cause here is healing
a look in the mirror cant see anything at all stop in front
of sound
of wall

a car is parked beneath the sea sometimes its flowing driving me
free but life is calling
back again
i am unique but not a men in pain sometimes soft
to fair i ask everything seems to be a task obsessions there often it hides dont need greater bigger guides in myself
i learn
here is my church when we work sometimes i seem to let it lurch
coming back it is the truth hope we move on in good old shoes
cant stand the time
we meet again
now im done
there 'll be no pain cause i simply got to learn when im calling her in my mind cannot listen

cause half is blind
a stigma done
in times of changes its stupid now got to rearrange
missing her
in deepest core often failed
come to the floor will to proof in time
but slow
shes enlightened sometimes show
the carma
im scared
cause of her world it was not often that i stood darkness there

it gets me blind missing secrets
i want to hide
it threatens, yes but it will do slowly step in this new shoe romantic feelings
to believe there true we will catch it
our clue
fate is proving again, again
and home is found better relax
to feel unbound must give myself
the time to grow
what i shall do is what shes shown loveless pain
it hurts deep down
want to cure it
maybe with sleep
sun it lightens
to enjoy the core better aware of getting sour
the trust hides deeper and it will be rather hide here instead of flee to dwell is what i have to proof sometimes wishing and often loose cause earth is more then just a bell
shes more than tall one of the best things that we have
and she is greater maybe greater than love but i love another my young taste
she drowning
this old bee
day will come
i see it clear the dark is leading without fear
life will guide us now we move
i say it again
we have to proof tomorrows given and now i leave

the words are written the time says
sleep

gone astray
the new morning just begun
i want to proof it but have no fun
my mind in whirls
the failure,
try im here to say no more goodbye
cause home is leading
back again
it is so hard to get a stand
words do stuck in my own throat want to wear it
that black coat where toad is threatening to die again i really found
our own band
not live in solice
try again im not her only not the biggest fan
cause she is smooth a palm growing trees can i honour
her own bees forest wild
its calming tight to a dot
maybe ill fight
were lies are born we have to see she is an old
the big one tree never lurching down again
need a shield to protect the beauty-men that gift is given more than living
cannot be close were losing both reaching out to her mind
her heart
it is a need

to kick a start than im home
and safe from missing do we need the need the blisses
a dream, yeah, and its only flesh this game i try
just like strategy
if i lose
i maybe flee
count on mid-day it is for what im here it is a dark one cruelty sphere

repeating time

space to solve time to move to get proofed were a part of solar system mothers force is what to bless us
complexity
annoying the core to change a thing is what i have to found playing games at even noon
but first got to carry carry soon negative irritation leads a part will i fly up to the stars seems death is given afraid of getting bound solving secrets
what a sound
the sky is cause we struggle high but inside the reason that leads to fly
not high, so soft an inner strength whats that secret
whats her strength drinking potion
it is a need
afraid of myself

to get the greed
the light is green red seems so far
must i taste
this darkened star
a chance to think remind my life rather flee
into the hive lost my courage
again i hide
i have to take it do the dive cause natures calling
back again
got to swim
to my dearest land where home is found and warmth so deep hear a sound and losing sheep
a fountain is born
i try to drink
what will i see may i blink
the morning path is done so soon
i have to move

Büsche und Bäume
bushes and trees in the sparkling wood sometimes dark sometimes cold lies a source nearly ancient but a beauty,
bright
drives the doubt into an outer corner where mother hides
the common purpose songs to sing sometimes bright sometimes soft
a waterfall
floods in my pond some get old
and some real rich dont want to eat
this horrifying meat all i have
is here my realm
swim further to a bigger lake

fear celebrates knocks me really soft were do i lay this golden spawn
and will it be eaten or sown
doubt again
yet he is revile
is it an solution
here soon in sight
waves rising
feel the breeze
a chance
like this will she be truth what does it has it a sense for our altar
it seems velvet
to conquer
my realm
need it never tastes like livestock so it will end
drys out
that she can grow this mouse

gras like water

in this turmoil its a beehive velvet
so dark impressing me
finance time to solve river flows to the edge
at my heart
take a breath
lost in diving translating feelings
her shore
so near get embraced time seems so cruel to me to pick up movements of solitude
but want to share the secrets

are hiding sisters calling alarm clock set
reminding me
of my own dreams shuffle the cards afraid to play cause darkend
nervous keeping me down swim again in my old pond dreams leading so dreamy delusions near toads wants to sparkle agressive force in the center surrounded by wispering trees kind of unity examinations
for complexity universal gifts
rather love her brunch drowning in her water to feel the breath of her skin
delivered emotions finding searching
to solve the yarn we live in her seat is comfort
so shiny tight
pressure inside
looking for harmony unbound
gras is green
leading to
eternity
family
home
love

luminous organ

i draw a pipe unbound joy
touching her heart
feel free narrow, scared courage to do it gets darker dreamy feelings annoying me

the beehive
not to touch
seems velvet sharing moments till again unity
a whirl unfounded
to taste the joy is the clock set leading to divine
but the flame
needs soft porridge blunt sword stitching me
a dark and velvet
home
maybe to dwell sparkling souls shiny hearts
promise comfort
aware of ice
hammering
rescuing bubbles
carry me
to a tender shore sleeping
dreaming a big one like a charm
until midnight
breath
the clean air wake me from the bottom of my small ship sailing finally
home
to enjoy
love
family
love; trust love
unity
love
eternity
security
love

apes in the yard

walking slow continuesly breaks leading upstairs
to an empty room where dust is given like draught in the heart but poison falling down near the core anxiety

fast, fast equalize and i keep on writing on and on stucking now in my pipe
bees intruding fast and soft is it my fault feel annoyed
easy way
smooth and velvet sleeping deep silence in my house adoration near feeling us but walking close to solitude
now morning home
copy shop
in time
near the end macines
destruct
the joy of eternity
but simply useful rushing in day deams
waiting for the kick blasting mind waking me sometimes so cruel
try to enjoy
hard way
full of senses leading to nowhere close family repeating for love - endless - part of eternity rules in space

a soft torture

a velvet dream full of blood and joy meanings interests
same decisions a path undiscovered
blossom of roses tormented by thorns engines started to pull the mess of young love darkened rust
exercising
blood and bones aggression so near hide myself to unlock my chest in kind of violent joy
dived in the blood sea
leading to
a secret path
got astray home is jumping inside
sensitive waves
cool shore
rescuing me gifted security
floating feelings until they come to the parasol starting new with the hive
may i taste
golden honey
or crawl into the honeycomb
sleeping
on more time lost in drunken,
soft daydreams
till even appears playing a game
till the king is beaten hoping for tomorrow to realign endless circle
to learn new part of solar system
home

chess games

in logic
time ticks on and on rules to remember nuance so hard and sweet
terrible losses
leading to
new knowledge remind and start new moving soldiers born to fall
green is so strong like my heart need a rest to start again
its getting black feel lightened darkness
wolves are hunting
seems so wild aggression
is to avoid driving in river arrive at one cool shore
missing her hermit secret found listen
get close
hard for a lentil big wage sensitive feeling got to have examinations
reminding needing her unity-home

wreck is burning
and i start turning damage just done
to macines
not very often but so keen losing words i feel so sick
stuck in this organ dirt coming out

nearly i had it been so proud maybe my time has come will i get grid now will i be done tactics waiting
upon the bar
want to swim now not so far just to that tiny shiny coast afraid of getting the cruel frost
our hearts
so close lead to divine
do i make it
it is mine
got to remember moving so far sometimes i hate that shiny star home is given travelled so well i try really like to stay
hard to do when pleasure comes sing along her brightest song to get a bit cured
it isnt much just a small one softed clutch do i want more deserve too much i need it now
her gorgeous touch stumbling here
fall on my knee
what to do else but flee
a hard emotion
its milking me
need the poition
of that bee to be real calmed
and tender inside
got to protect me so i hide
now i leave
its time to move want to get that quiet groove
to survive in day till even comes

i want them all daughters and sons sleep now good and dream not fast
so the delusion
would not pass
living shell
and sound inside may i really really hide

lost

played a game
leading to fame not to kill but beat that hill dreaming land
and rushing sand
iam bend furtunes calling what a morning type again
to her own land lived in a shell and now i dwell blood so close cause we are both sharing life
in a velvet hive
her river so warm is calming that storm sing along a brighter song honeys given delicious taste
not to let me let me waste
season is changing
and i start learning
do i leave or am i earning
it seems so far im under it my own star
noise is calling and i start burning why that torture
shell gets bruised it was easy
looks like lose
morning is done
and we had fun leaving her just to come back

im following that secret dot where pleasure is so sweet to feel no more alone
dont go on my knee
now i feel home cause she is not a clone
to share endless love - couple bilberry cake

in the kitchen crawls a snake poision teeth
i need a break bakery at the table
not aggressive
if im able now crawling to that secret wood find an apple
if i could to start real soon
at kitchens floor
must grow up to her adore
when sharing time is all we need dont move crazy
we can beat to catch some creed and fly real fine
whats on my back
why hurts my spine
the work we do
all will be done
examine too
where pleasure is close and swimming in the summer burning sun
and cooling water to reach that island when were in time
it will be like this and oh so fine but boat is missing
we can nick one moving faster
aiming at the sun where pleasure is turning and time stands still jump at the mountain yeah, we will her wild horse is blinding me never run back

never flee
spheres are waiting now i see it will all be good when we run free

sea of flowers

thats what i like
at the row
at the line resemblance how forget-me-not
the cloud blue
as an ocean listen is what i can do a bit
the wave is rageing yells to consumption recede
turns to a river worrys deep lays in the face again a
rose is shining in my conscience
cant help myself
been tear up but advice is near gets a greeting please not away but i must
the stones hard at my shoe see the rock
and go to sleep
flowers blossom at naked stone it becomes truth
raven caw
soul frosts were two but four the sea

he lays so close to me
must i change to an animal remorse shimmers
the heart
it glows
never get it when he lies to me pain, so hard weights so heavy the armour rattling falling into the sea
must dive now farewell, who wants no, rather swim
or it gets worse
gold drags me deeper get black again lively should it be that would be nice now ends the rhyme
i will go
maybe home
