International Conference of Information Commissioners (ICIC)

The International Conference of Information Commissioners (ICIC) is a permanent network which connects member Information Commissioners in order to foster the protection and the promotion of access to public information as a fundamental pillar to social, economic and democratic governance.

The ICIC is governed by its members who elect the Executive Committee. The elected Chair and Vice Chair of the Executive Committee administer the ICIC with the support of a Secretariat.

Role of the Members of Executive Committee

The role of the Executive Committee is critical to the delivery and achievement of the ICIC vision, mission and goals. The Executive Committee has key responsibilities that it must carry out to contribute towards the development and progression of the work of the ICIC. Delivery of these key responsibilities compliment the roles of the Chair, Vice Chair and Secretariat in ensuring the overall objectives of the ICIC and support to its members are achieved.

Key Responsibilities of the Executive Committee:

- Lead the implementation of the strategic priorities decided upon by members at the annual meeting
- Lead the implementation of the resolutions decided upon by members at the annual meeting
- Monitor the progress of implementation of resolutions and any other matter mandated by the members at the annual meeting
- Support the development of the agenda of the annual meeting
Encourage members to promote and participate in relevant international events and initiatives (for example, the International Day for the Universal Access to Information)

- Review membership applications
- Review applications to host the annual meeting
- Review requests for amendments to the Charter
- Review and approve ICIC processes and amendments to ICIC processes as required
- Review and mediate any dispute brought forward by members

Eligibility

Any ICIC member may present their candidacy to be an Ordinary Member of the Executive Committee in accordance with the application and election process for members of the Executive Committee.

Duration of Mandate

In accordance with section 21 of the Charter, members of the Executive Committee, including the Chair and Vice Chair serve for a maximum term of three years.

A member may step down from their role by written notice to the Chair. The seat of that member remains vacant until the next election of the Executive Committee.
