Quality Hunts

5 Day Guided Trophy Mule Deer Hunt on 100,000 acres of the best Mule Deer property in the area around Gillett, Wyoming which is known for great Mule Deer. Most outfitters are higher and of course have spots available. At this lower price you can see why he is always booked up. You will be hunting 2 hunters to 1 guide by 4-wheel drive vehicle, glassing. You will be taking short walks to get better vantage points for some of the glassing. These bucks get very little pressure so they are very accessible if you can make a shot count when the chips are down. Some great bucks come out of here every year and it continues to be a crowd pleasure and the price is acceptable to everyone. The main problem is that most rebook when they leave each year so at times there is a waiting list, but it is well worth waiting for or they wouldn't do it. Most years there are 2 or 3 hunters that fall out so we can quickly re-fill those spots each year. If you are looking for a 160-190 Mule Deer Wyoming Style this is the hunt for you. How big yours will be has a lot to do with when YOU decide to pull the trigger.

This hunt requires 1 preference point to draw or a special buck license applied for. The outfitter will also average points across the hunters and can usually find a point for you in the average.

Deer Season is 10/1 to 10/20

I saw where he hunted by the house and it is about 10 miles west of Gillette. You would be hunting in Region C for deer most likely although I don't know if some of his land stretches into an adjacent region. I know those first 20 days of the season he is focused on Deer only, then probably as the last group fills, they start antelope. So, a combo hunt would put you farther from 10/1 which I feel is the best date, just don't know if it is booked from the previous year hunters that did not draw then.
