

MAXIMUM FUN, MINIMUM COST: Flying Clubs & What They Can Mean to You

Date/Time: Tuesday, April 23, 2019
5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Location: Marion Municipal Airport (KMZZ)
Terminal Building
5904 South Western Ave
Marion, IN 46953

Join AOPA's You Can Fly Great Lakes Ambassador Andy Miller for a free seminar highlighting the benefits of joining a flying club.

Hosted by the Marion Pilot's Club (MarionPilotsClub.org), you'll learn how you can fly more, spend less, and have more fun in the process.

Interested in starting a club of your own? Andy will also present a short program designed to demystify that process as well.

Join us for this complimentary seminar and learn how the Marion Pilot's Club works, how affordable it is, and the positive affect it can have on your flying!

Complimentary dinner will be provided at 6:30pm. Following dinner, stick around as Andy will be presenting the AOPA Air Safety Institute's Safety Seminar "Weather Investigations."

Seating is limited, so RSVP now to guarantee your spot.
