1144	Football, This and the following 8 lots were all previously part of a private collection of items gifted to a lady who was prominent in a Hotel chain that accommodated for many of the top football teams in the 1970's/80's including the England squad. There are several privately taken photos included showing players with her & her family. Kevin Keegan, a Patrick tracksuit originally owned by Kevin Keegan and presented to him by Patrick for whom he was a promoting their new range of football boots. This red & blue hooded tracksuit was used by Keegan when promoting the Company's boots. Sold with a promotional card signed by Keegan. This tracksuit and other items were later presented to his friend Susan McGloin, who had assisted his family and the England squad over many years. Supplied with a selection of 6 personal photos of Keegan with Sue, her family & England teammates. A scarce item in excellent condition with tremendous provenance.	£300-500 (plus BP*)
1145	Football, Mick Mills, England, Admiral England shirt in cotton worn in training & practice matches by Mick Mills, then of Ipswich Town. It has an embroidered Admiral badge in blue with a red hand stitched No 3 in cotton to back. A supporting photo shows this style of shirt being worn by the whole England squad and dated 1975/76. The FA only applied the Three Lions badge on match kit. The shirt shows faint blue pen signatures of the squad but these are very faded. Good condition & genuine item from the period (2)	£300-500 (plus BP*)
1146	Football, Mick Channon, England, Admiral England tracksuit top, 1975, worn in training by Mick Channon with supporting cuttings showing Channon & other team members wearing them. Embroidered to the front with 'Admiral' & to the back with 'England'. Sold with England v Wales match programme 1977 signed to the front by Kevin Keegan & Mick Channon. (gd)	£300-500 (plus BP*)
1147	Football, Mick Channon, Southampton FC, FA Cup Final prototype tracksuit. This tracksuit was one of the prototype tracksuits prepared by Admiral and sent to Southampton for approval by the Club prior to the 1976 FA Cup Final. This example was worn by Mick Channon but the tightness of the top & flared trousers were not approved by the players. Admiral subsequently made changes for the version eventually worn by the squad at Wembley. Sold with a Southern Evening Echo newspaper dated 30 April 1976 showing the team wearing the prototype example. Sold with Mick Channon autobiography, Testimonial match programme & Hampshire Telegraph souvenir Cup Final winners newspaper, (vg)	£300-500 (plus BP*)
1148	Football, England, prototype Admiral red away kit shirt which was offered to the FA for approval in the 1970's. The material used didn't meet with the players approval & the FA also disapproved of individually embroidered Three Lions badge. It is believed that all bar this shirt were returned to Admiral. Admiral then produced a new away red kit, copying the home style shirt, with blue & white stripes down each sleeve. The shirt has been washed and some of the colours have run. Still in original Admiral packet. Unique opportunity to own a piece of football history. (gd)	£300-500 (plus BP*)
