

HOLY TRINITY LOS ANGELES

To My Holy Trinity Family:

I would like to thank all of you that have already pledged for our annual Together in Mission Campaign. We still have a long way to go to make our goal. If you have not yet pledged, I ask you to pray about how you can help. Our parish mandatory goal is $32,454.00. I thank you for your generosity. I know that together we will once again make our goal as a parish family.

Our 3rd Annual Valentine's Dinner Dance was a great success. It was truly a fun time for all. A very special thank you to our volunteers that worked so very hard to make this night so special. A very special thank you to our candidates who are running for Prince, Princess, and Queen of Holy Trinity Parish. Please support them in their efforts as they fundraise for our parish.

Three winning tickets have been pulled for the raffle for, "Dinner with the Parish Priests." The three winning tickets are: Frank and Erika Parra, Patty Talaro, and Tommy and Leslie Hwang. We will be contacting you soon to plan this fun night here at the rectory.

DID YOU KNOW?

To establish confidence with your children start with questions about their daily activities. Sometimes children will behave in a manner quite unusual for them – stress, misunderstanding, or some form of abuse can be related to such behaviors. If you see your child exhibiting unusual behavior, talk with your child about their day or recent experiences in an open-ended conversation. Do ask factual questions, such as, “What did you do today? Did you do anything unusual today? Who did you see today? Did anyone say or do anything that was unusual or even upsetting? Then, ask feeling questions as a follow-up, and remember that sometimes it’s easier for a child to talk about someone else’s feelings first.
