

HOLY TRINITY LOS ANGELES

To My Holy Trinity Family:

I hope this weekly letter finds you well and healthy. Please take care of yourself during this difficult time. Social distancing and good hygiene is vital now more than ever. Please know that you all are in my daily prayers and thoughts. The entire parish is remembered at my daily mass. Know how loved you are by God and that you are not alone. God is with you always!

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles has mandated that the parish office stays closed to the public until further notice. We are allowed to have employees work on a limited basis. Monday-Wednesday, the phone lines will be on from 8:30-1:30pm. The rest of the time our answering service will answer. I receive an email right away from our answering service, so please know that I will call you back as soon as I can.

Holy Trinity School will remain closed through April 19th. Of course there is a great chance that this will be extended. CCD and Confirmation will reopen when LAUSD reopens. The masses for First Holy Communion and Confirmation have not been changed yet, however things are truly day by day. I thank you in advance for your patience and understanding.

Families are getting the chance to spend a lot more time together. How are you spending that time? School and work must be done. Prayer is also just as important however. I encourage all of you to pray the rosary daily as a family. Reflect over the daily mass readings. Pray the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. Watch our parish's 10:30am mass on our Facebook page. The Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help will also be shown every Wednesday at 7:00pm. God is inviting us to make things right. Turn away from sin and focus on Jesus!

A big congratulations to Ray Emnace who been called to become a deacon for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. His ordination is scheduled for June 6th at the Cathedral. Please keep him and his wife Sandra in your prayers. Please pray for your parish and support Holy Trinity financially.

The Archdiocese works to prevent abuse through our Safeguard the Children Programs on prevention and reporting, fingerprinting and background checks, and clergy formation programs. For National Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Office of Safeguard the Children has created the 2019 Child Abuse Prevention Resource Packet. The packet includes pinwheel stickers, decorations and children’s activities as well as informative articles to help parents and other caring adults learn about how to protect our children and youth. This campaign provides another opportunity to transform awareness into action as we affirm every child’s right for a life filled with hope, health and happiness.
