

To My Holy Trinity Family:

This weekend is very special for us as both the RE Program and Holy Trinity School celebrate First Holy Communion. A special thank you to all of our families for being so patient. Lina Bruce and her team of catechists have done a wonderful job this year preparing our students. Karen Lloyd and her teachers have our students well prepared at our parish school. Please pray for our students who have received First Holy Communion this weekend

To all of you parents out there I want to say THANK YOU! These past few months have been hard for us all. They have especially been difficult for our families. You parents are our superstars.

What can we say about our teachers as well? Our teachers are truly the best! They have had a year that nobody could have ever imagined. To all of you teachers out there, your vocation is so much appreciated and valued. When is the last time you paused to thank a teacher that has made a positive impact in your life?

Next Sunday is Father's Day. We will start the Father's Day Novena on Sunday June 21st and it will run through Monday June 29th. Simply turn in any envelope to the parish office and we will put it next to the tabernacle during the duration of the Father's Day Novena.

I want to thank those parishioners that have returned to mass. Your presence has truly been a blessing for all of us priests. For those of you watching online I can't wait to see you soon.

God Bless,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "What is a 'Concern' that I Should Communicate?" visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS...DID YOU KNOW?

Attending a Catholic school is the greatest predictor of strong religious knowledge. According to a study conducted by the National Opinion Research Center, Catholic school attendance positively influenced adults' religious practices including the following:
 Weekly Mass attendance
 Reception of Communion several times per month
 Going to Confession at least once a month
 Daily prayer
 Give your children the gift of faith and give them the Catholic School Advantage! Apply now for the 2020 - 2021 school year at Holy Trinity School. Scholarships are available for parish families.
