

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Today June 28th is Fr. Mike's 40th birthday! Fr. Mike is taking some much needed vacation this weekend but please keep him in your thoughts and prayers. I would also like to wish Deacon Rolando a Happy Birthday this Tuesday June 30th. May God Bless you abundantly Deacon Rolando and Fr. Mike! May God Bless you with good health and many more blessings to come.

Starting in July adoration will return in the morning Monday-Friday. Adoration will now be for two hours from 8:30am-10:30am. We will then close the Church for a deep cleaning. The Church will reopen at 4:00pm for the 5:00pm weekday mass. This is a temporary schedule and hopefully we will be able to add additional time as things progress.

The Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help will also return in July starting on Wednesday July 1st. The novena will take place every Wednesday evening right after the 5:00pm mass. All are invited to join us in prayer and devotion. Right after the novena will be a deep cleaning of the Church.

So far mass attendance has been fairly light on Sunday. The 7:30am mass has been the most popular by far, followed by the 1:30pm mass. The two 5:00pm masses have been extremely light. I pray and hope that parishioners will return soon. As Catholics we need to receive the Eucharist. Please know that I am praying for you all and I look forward to welcoming you home.

After August I along with the other clergy will look at the Sunday Mass Schedule and see how we are doing. If a mass time is not being well attended we will examine that and see if adjustments need to be made. The time to come home is now. Spread the news that we are open and ready to serve you all!

This Saturday July 4th we celebrate Independence Day! May God Bless the United States of America. Now more than ever God needs to be the center of our lives! Let us be united as people of faith and make this country holy and humble. Be not afraid God is with us always!

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. CATHOLIC SCHOOLS...DID YOU KNOW?

Attending a Catholic school is the greatest predictor of strong religious knowledge. According to a study conducted by the National Opinion Research Center, Catholic school attendance positively influenced adults’ religious practices including the following:
 Weekly Mass attendance
 Reception of Communion several times per month
 Going to Confession at least once a month
 Daily prayer
 Give your children the gift of faith and give them the Catholic School Advantage! Apply now for the 2020 - 2021 school year at Holy Trinity School. Scholarships are available for parish families.
