

To My Holy Trinity Family:

The choir loft looks great! The old carpet has been removed and replaced with wood flooring. It looks so much better and is much easier to maintain. When our choirs return, hopefully sooner than later, they will find new microphones and flooring ready to use. Thank you to everyone who donated to Called to Renew.

This Monday November 16th the students from Holy Trinity School will be making their First Confession. Please keep the 21 students in your prayers as they go to confession for the very first time. We are proud of all of you!

Thanksgiving Day is right around the corner. We will have three masses this year for your convenience. The night before Thanksgiving 11/25 we will have mass at 6:30pm. On Thanksgiving Day 11/26 we will have two masses at 8am and 9:30am. Please join us as we give gratitude to God for all of our blessings!

If you would like to be a sponsor of one of our Thanksgiving Masses, please take an envelope and turn it in as soon as possible. Envelopes can be found in the school pavilion. You can also mail in any envelope with your prayer petitions. All the envelopes will be lifted up in prayer at all three of our Thanksgiving Masses.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is alive and well. It does not matter who our president is, Jesus will always be king! My friends let us put our trust in Jesus Christ. He alone will lead us to holiness. He alone is the path to Heaven. Church teaching and morality does not change based on what the secular world wants us to do. Absolute truth does exist. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. We need to have passion for our Catholic faith. Life is precious from conception to a natural death. We are pro-life 100% as a Church. Nothing will ever change that. Our faith should guide us each and every day. We are all created in the image and likeness of God. Our dignity comes from God alone and nobody else! You are an essential disciple!

In Christ,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Boundaries are critical, for you and for the children in your care. Establishing and maintaining boundaries helps teach children their importance, gives them the tools to establish their own, and to form appropriate and healthy relationships with other adults. You can avoid even a misconception of inappropriate behavior by upholding the boundaries you have established for yourself, allowing you more freedom to care for the children in your life. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION'S CORNER

Dear Religious Education Family & Friends: October is dedicated for the Holy Rosary! The church encourages all the faithful to pray the rosary each day. Praying the Rosary should be an integral part of our daily spiritual regimen and we can use it as a reminder of God's love for us. The United States Bishop Conference of the Catholic Bishops says in their website that: “The Rosary is a Scripture-based prayer. It begins with the Apostles' Creed, which summarizes the great mysteries of the Catholic faith. The Our Father, which introduces each mystery, is from the Gospels. The first part of the Hail Mary is the angel's words announcing Christ's birth and Elizabeth's greeting to Mary. St. Pius V officially added the second part of the Hail Mary. The Mysteries of the Rosary center on the events of Christ's life”.

The purpose of the Rosary is to help keep in memory certain principal events in the history of our salvation. There are twenty mysteries reflected upon in the Rosary, and these are divided into the five Joyful Mysteries (said on Monday and Saturday), the five Luminous Mysteries (said on Thursday), the five Sorrowful Mysteries (said on Tuesday and Friday), and the five Glorious Mysteries (said on Wednesday and Sunday). As an exception, the Joyful Mysteries may be said on Sundays during Advent and Christmas, while the Sorrowful Mysteries may be said on the Sundays of Lent.

The mysteries of the Rosary are based on the incidents in the life of Our Lord and His Mother that are celebrated in the Liturgy. There is a parallel between the main feasts honoring our Lord and his Mother in the liturgical year, and the twenty mysteries of the Rosary. One who recites the twenty mysteries of the Rosary in one day reflects on the whole liturgical cycle that the Church commemorates during the course of each year. That is why some of the Popes have referred to the Rosary as a compendium of the Gospel. One cannot change the mysteries of the Rosary without losing the indulgences that the Church grants for the recitation of the Rosary.

The rosary can be prayed privately or with a group. Last weekend, our parish had its 15th Annual Living Rosary, we prayed together as a Parish Family. Let us make a habit of praying the Rosary daily with our family and ask our Mother in heaven to keep our family safe and united. As Father Peyton said, “the family that prays together stays together.”

Keep safe and God bless.
