

To My Holy Trinity Family:

This week is Catholic Schools Week. Today we pause and thank God for the wonderful gift that Holy Trinity School has been for our parish. We thank God for the many alumni that have gone to this school. We thank God for all of the hard working faculty and staff that have served our school community throughout the years. We thank God for our current students and their families. But today I really want to thank our principal and our hard working faculty and staff for their dedication to our students. It is not easy being a teacher. May God Bless our entire Holy Trinity School community.

Our latest Called to Renew project has been approved by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. We will be replacing all of the windows in the rectory. This much needed project is only possible because of your generosity. May God reward the good people that you are. This will begin in April.

Our 2023 Together in Mission Campaign starts in February. The Archdiocese last week revived all of our parish goals. This year our campaign goal is $31,194.00. Together as one parish, I know we can meet our goal once again. Just a reminder that all of the money collected for Together in Mission goes to keep our poorest parishes and school open. This is restricted giving and can't be used for any other purpose. Any money collected over our goal, will be returned to us at Holy Trinity.

Today after the 9am mass we thank God for the gift of Deacon Rolando and his wife Barbie. They will be moving back to the Philippines. We will see them from time to time when they visit. Deacon Rolando you have taught me so much. I am forever grateful for all that you have done for me and Holy Trinity. You are a true servant and will be greatly missed. Barbie, you are simply the best! May you know of our unconditional love and support! We will not say goodbye, we will simply say, "Until we meet again." In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse. Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children's friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child's friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it's critical that you remain calm, and don't overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Holy Trinity School, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources.
