

To My Holy Trinity Family:

2022 is now here! We begin a New Year together as a parish family. 2021 may have been challenging, but there were also many blessings along the way. We thank God for those blessings and move forward to 2022. We are also still in the Christmas Season. Keep those Christmas Decorations up. May our Newborn King bring you many blessings in the New Year.

Many projects are going on as we speak. Have you noticed the Stations of the Cross? They look fantastic. The final six are being worked on right now. They will be done before Ash Wednesday. The rectory backyard renovation project is almost done. We redid the patio and are just waiting for the covering to come in. It is backordered and will arrive in mid March. We have also worked on the roof of the rectory and the Brunswick House. When the strong rain came a few weeks ago there was a minor leak, and we were able to repair it. Thank you for all that you do to maintain our parish property.

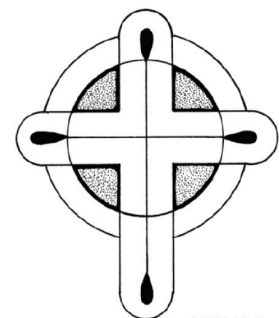

The Novena to the Santo Nino will run from January 6th through January 14th. On the final night all are invited to bring images of the Santo Nino for a special blessing. Please join us in prayer and devotion.

I am off this Monday-Friday. Every priest is required to take five days off after Christmas. Msgr. Herres was off last week and I leave on Monday. I will be back next weekend so most of you will not notice that I am gone. Please keep me in prayer and be assured of my prayers for you as well.

Holy Trinity School returns this week! Welcome Back Huskies! May this new semester bring many new blessings to you all. High School Confirmation returns this Friday and Religious Education on Saturday. RCIA returns as well. Please keep our parishioners in prayer as they prepare to receive their Easter Sacraments in a few months.

Merry Christmas
Happy New Year,

Fr. Ricardo

SUNDAY OFFERINGS

The deposit amount for the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph will be announced at a later time. Thank you for your generosity and continued support of Holy Trinity Parish.

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
