

To My Holy Trinity Family:

It has been a true delight to see more people returning to mass. I along with the other priests are inspired by your faith and your presence. Welcome home and we are so glad to have you back.

The All Souls Novena is right around the corner. The novena will run from November 2nd- November 10th. If you wish to enroll your beloved dead in the All Souls Novena, please turn in any envelope with your donation to the parish office, or at mass on Sundays. Please list the names of those you would like for us to pray for during the All Souls Novena on the envelope. You can also mail it in for your convenience. May all our beloved dead have the reward of eternal life in Heaven. Please remember to pray for the souls in purgatory as well.

We have been blessed with many baptisms the past few weeks. Though they have been held outside, they have been very special and memorable. If you have a child that needs to be baptized, please call us in the parish office. We will be more than happy to help you. Right now we are not doing an in person baptism class, so every couple will meet me for a brief meeting. Nothing to scary I promise, it is just an opportunity for me to meet with you briefly. In January Deacon Ray will be starting the Baptism classes up again on the third Wednesday of the month.

The 2020 Mass intention book is completely full. There are no spaces left in the 2020 Calendar year. We will open the 2020 mass intention book in November. We will follow the same policies as in the past. No new changes. Call the office in November please for more information.

When is the last time that you went to confession? God’s mercy and forgiveness is waiting for you all. We have confessions every Saturday Morning from 8:45am-9:30am, and every First Friday from after the 5:00pm mass until 6:30pm. Be not afraid the mercy of Christ never wavers.

In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Boundaries are critical, for you and for the children in your care. Establishing and maintaining boundaries helps teach children their importance, gives them the tools to establish their own, and to form appropriate and healthy relationships with other adults. You can avoid even a misconception of inappropriate behavior by upholding the boundaries you have established for yourself, allowing you more freedom to care for the children in your life. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION'S CORNER

Dear Religious Education Family & Friends: October is dedicated for the Holy Rosary! The church encourages all the faithful to pray the rosary each day. Praying the Rosary should be an integral part of our daily spiritual regimen and we can use it as a reminder of God's love for us. The United State Bishop Conference of the Catholic Bishops says in their website that: “The Rosary is a Scripture-based prayer. It begins with the Apostles’ Creed, which summarizes the great mysteries of the Catholic faith. The Our Father, which introduces each mystery, is from the Gospels. The first part of the Hail Mary is the angel’s words announcing Christ’s birth and Elizabeth’s greeting to Mary. St. Pius V officially added the second part of the Hail Mary. The Mysteries of the Rosary center on the events of Christ’s life”.

The purpose of the Rosary is to help keep in memory certain principal events in the history of our salvation. There are twenty mysteries reflected upon in the Rosary, and these are divided into the five Joyful Mysteries (said on Monday and Saturday), the five Luminous Mysteries (said on Thursday), the five Sorrowful Mysteries (said on Tuesday and Friday), and the five Glorious Mysteries (said on Wednesday and Sunday). As an exception, the Joyful Mysteries may be said on Sundays during Advent and Christmas, while the Sorrowful Mysteries may be said on the Sundays of Lent.

The mysteries of the Rosary are based on the incidents in the life of Our Lord and His Mother that are celebrated in the Liturgy. There is a parallel between the main feasts honoring our Lord and his Mother in the liturgical year, and the twenty mysteries of the Rosary. One who recites the twenty mysteries of the Rosary in one day reflects on the whole liturgical cycle that the Church commemorates during the course of each year. That is why some of the Popes have referred to the Rosary as a compendium of the Gospel. One cannot change the mysteries of the Rosary without losing the indulgences that the Church grants for the recitation of the Rosary.

The rosary can be prayed privately or with a group. Last weekend, our parish had its 15th Annual Living Rosary, we prayed together as a Parish Family. Let us make a habit of praying the Rosary daily with our family and ask our Mother in heaven to keep our family safe and united. As Father Peyton said, “the family that prays together stays together.”

Keep safe and God bless.
