

To My Holy Trinity Family:

All Souls Day is around the corner on Tuesday November 2nd. We will have a special mass that night at 7:00pm. All are invited to come and bring a photo of your deceased loves ones that night for display at mass. No photos will be accepted at the rectory or at the school. Please bring the photos that night at mass to be displayed in our Sanctuary.

The envelopes for the All Souls Novena are now available. Please turn them in as soon as possible. Please write your name of your beloved dead, put your donation in the envelope, and they will be displayed during our nine day novena of masses. The Novena will run from November 2nd through November 10th. May all of our beloved dead have the reward of eternal life in Heaven.

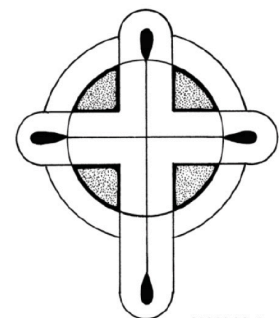

We also have separate Candle Envelopes for All Souls Day. One name per envelope please. The minimum donation will be ten dollars per candle. We will put the name on the candle, and I will light them on All Souls Day. These are due by Sunday October 31st. Please turn them in as soon as possible.

Please join us this Saturday October 23rd for our Bingo Fundraiser in the School Pavilion from 12:00pm until 4:00pm. The first one was a lot of fun and we hope to see you there. The money raised goes directly back to our parish. May God bless you all.

Have you been praying the Rosary daily? October is not over yet so if you have not started, it is not too late. I encourage all of you to pray the Rosary daily. The Rosary is a powerful spiritual tool to help us along the way. Our Lady of the Rosary pray for us!

I would like to thank you all for your attendance at mass. Your presence is so important. Be not afraid. Jesus is with us always. Thank you for your goodness and faith.

In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo Viveros

SUNDAY OFFERINGS

The deposit amount for the Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary time was $9,166.70. Thank you for your generosity and continued support of Holy Trinity Parish.

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. ST. JOSEPH’S WEEKLY WORKSHOP

Tools to grow spiritually in the Year of St. Joseph (Dec 8, 2020 – Dec 8, 2021)

St. Joseph Litany – Guardian of the Redeemer

In 1989 Pope St. John Paul II released his Apostolic Exhortation declaring St. Joseph, Redemptoris Custos (Guardian of the Redeemer). As St. Joseph quietly watched over Jesus in His childhood, he too watches our Church. The following are St. John Paul II closing words in his 1989 exhortation.

“This just man, who bore within himself the entire heritage of the Old Covenant, was also brought into the ‘beginning’ of the New and Eternal Covenant in Jesus Christ. May he show us the paths of this saving Covenant as we stand at the threshold of the next millennium, in which there must be a continuation and further development of the ‘fullness of time’ that belongs the ineffable mystery of the Incarnation of the Word”

Wednesdays are traditionally associated with St. Joseph - join us in praying the Rosary on the first Wednesday of each month after the 5:00 pm Mass. Email HTPrayerJMJ@Outlook.com to learn more.
