

To My Holy Trinity Family:

I've decided to take the time to discern my path set out for me by God outside of seminary formation. My faith is substantiated in the one true faith of Jesus Christ in His Catholic Church, but feel that I am called to serve Him as a layperson and not a priest. I have been blessed to be a part of your community for the last two months and will continue to be living in the Los Angeles area while serving the Catholic community. Fr. Ricky, Fr. Mike, Msgr. Herres, and Fr. Leo are awesome priests and we are blessed to have them as our spiritual leaders. Their guidance and patience with me has been heartfelt and inspiring. I am also grateful to the friendships I have made while interning at this parish. Your community is in my daily prayers and I hope to be seeing you around in the near future.

Sincerely,
Daniel Rosner

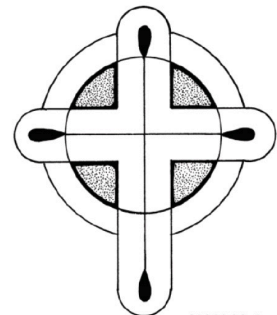

I ask that you please keep Daniel in your prayers. Although he was only with us for a short time, we wish him all of the best in life. Let us continue to pray for an increase in Vocations to the priesthood.

My condolences to Fr. Mike Perucho on the Giants tough loss to the Dodgers in a nail biter. My heart breaks for you. I can't lie, not really, Go Dodgers!

All Souls Day is around the corner. Please turn in your candle and novena envelopes in as soon as possible. We will have a special mass on Tuesday November 2nd at 7:00pm. All are invited to bring photos of their deceased loved ones for this special mass. No photos will be accepted prior to the mass at the rectory or at the school.

All Saints Day is Monday November 1st. We will have two masses at 8am and 5pm. I hope to see you there. Although it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, I encourage you to attend.

God Bless,
Fr. Ricardo
Go Dodgers!

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. ST. JOSEPH'S WEEKLY WORKSHOP

Tools to grow spiritually in the Year of St. Joseph (Dec 8, 2020 – Dec 8, 2021)

Saint Joseph - Patron of the Dying

O glorious St. Joseph, pray for me, assist me and defend me from Satan at the hour of my death.

- St. Anthony Mary Claret

Saint Joseph died a holy and happy death. He died gazing upon Jesus and resting in the arms of Mary. What greater death could a person experience? God has designated St. Joseph as the Patron of the dying because he wants us to experience a death similar to that of St. Joseph, a holy and happy death.

We need to be prepared for death because Satan always tries to get a soul to despair and turn away from our loving God at the hour of our death. We need the intercession of our Spiritual father (St. Joseph) to fortify us, protect us and fill us with trust in God's mercy and love.

Wednesdays are traditionally associated with St. Joseph –join us in praying the Rosary on the first Wednesday of each month after the 5:00 pm Mass. Email HTPrayerJMJ@Outlook.com to learn more.
