

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Since March we have been able to live stream a mass every 10:30am on Sunday. These masses just do not happen on their own. We are blessed to have a talented group of people make this happen every Sunday. Andrew Villa has been here all but one Sunday providing wonderful music for us. Silvio Miranda has been here all but two Sunday's making sure the internet is working properly and that the live stream happens without fail. He has many roles here. He runs our parish website and social media pages. He also is our cameraman. Deacon Rolando is here every Sunday with his wife Barbara and they make sure everything is set up for mass. A special thank you to the lectors who help out as well. Do not get too comfortable with the live stream, it will not be permanent.

This week I will be meeting with the Pastoral Council and Finance Council. There is so much happening on in the world right now. I will be meeting with them briefly to talk about what the needs of the parish are. Please keep us in prayer this week.

The All Souls Novena is right around the corner. If you have not turned in your envelope yet, please do so ASAP. The envelopes will be present for nine consecutive days during the novena. Praying for the dead is such an important thing to do as Catholics. Please also remember to pray for the holy souls in purgatory.

The mass intention book for 2021 will be available at some point in November. I will not announce a specific date at mass this year. I am doing this so that there will not be a big crowd at the rectory on any particular day. For more information please call the rectory and speak with either Sylvia or Margarita.

All are invited to a special mass on Monday November 2nd at 7:00pm for All Souls Day. Please bring a photo of your beloved dead with you for that mass only.

Go Dodgers!

DID YOU KNOW?

Boundaries are critical, for you and for the children in your care. Establishing and maintaining boundaries helps teach children their importance, gives them the tools to establish their own, and to form appropriate and healthy relationships with other adults. You can avoid even a misconception of inappropriate behavior by upholding the boundaries you have established for yourself, allowing you more freedom to care for the children in your life. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION'S CORNER

Dear Religious Education Family & Friends: October is dedicated for the Holy Rosary! The church encourages all the faithful to pray the rosary each day. Praying the Rosary should be an integral part of our daily spiritual regimen and we can use it as a reminder of God's love for us. The United State Bishop Conference of the Catholic Bishops says in their website that: “The Rosary is a Scripture-based prayer. It begins with the Apostles' Creed, which summarizes the great mysteries of the Catholic faith. The Our Father, which introduces each mystery, is from the Gospels. The first part of the Hail Mary is the angel's words announcing Christ's birth and Elizabeth's greeting to Mary. St. Pius V officially added the second part of the Hail Mary. The Mysteries of the Rosary center on the events of Christ's life”.

The purpose of the Rosary is to help keep in memory certain principal events in the history of our salvation. There are twenty mysteries reflected upon in the Rosary, and these are divided into the five Joyful Mysteries (said on Monday and Saturday), the five Luminous Mysteries (said on Thursday), the five Sorrowful Mysteries (said on Tuesday and Friday), and the five Glorious Mysteries (said on Wednesday and Sunday). As an exception, the Joyful Mysteries may be said on Sundays during Advent and Christmas, while the Sorrowful Mysteries may be said on the Sundays of Lent.

The mysteries of the Rosary are based on the incidents in the life of Our Lord and His Mother that are celebrated in the Liturgy. There is a parallel between the main feasts honoring our Lord and his Mother in the liturgical year, and the twenty mysteries of the Rosary. One who recites the twenty mysteries of the Rosary in one day reflects on the whole liturgical cycle that the Church commemorates during the course of each year. That is why some of the Popes have referred to the Rosary as a compendium of the Gospel. One cannot change the mysteries of the Rosary without losing the indulgences that the Church grants for the recitation of the Rosary.

The rosary can be prayed privately or with a group. Last weekend, our parish had its 15th Annual Living Rosary, we prayed together as a Parish Family. Let us make a habit of praying the Rosary daily with our family and ask our Mother in heaven to keep our family safe and united. As Father Peyton said, “the family that prays together stays together.”

Keep safe and God bless.
