

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Happy Halloween! I hope you are able to do something fun this weekend and eat your favorite candy. However for us Catholics this week has a very special meaning to it as we celebrate two very important days.

We begin on Monday November 1st with All Saints Day. We will have two masses at 8:00am and 5:00pm. Although it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, I encourage you to still come to mass. We are called to follow the example of the saints that went ahead of us. The saints did great things in the name of Jesus. They were not perfect and had their own struggles just like you and I. Becoming a saint requires patience and dedication. It requires humility and surrendering to God. My favorite Saints are St. John Vianney and St. Padre Pio. Who are your favorite saints?

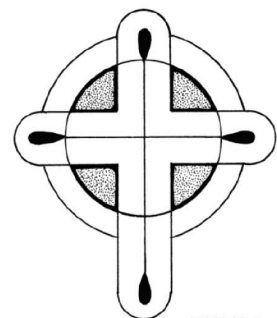

All Souls Day is on Tuesday November 2nd. We will have our normal masses at 8:00am and 5:00pm. We will also have a special mass at 7:00pm. At the 7:00pm mass all are invited to bring a photo of their deceased loved ones for display. We will display these photos in the Church sanctuary for that night only. Please pray for the dead daily. In a special way let us pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory and for those who have know one to pray for them.

Next Sunday the time changes, we Fall Back an hour. Make sure you come to mass at the right time. You do not want to be an hour early. Although I guess that is better than being an hour late right!

This Thursday November 4th Deacon Ray will be leading a Communion Service at 5:00pm We will still have mass that morning at 8:00am.

This Friday November 5th is First Friday. We will have confession from 5:45-6:30pm. We will also have an extra adoration time from 8:30am until noon and after the 5:00pm mass until 8:00pm.

A Blessed All Saints and All Souls Day,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants. ST. JOSEPH'S WEEKLY WORKSHOP

Tools to grow spiritually in the Year of St. Joseph (Dec 8, 2020 – Dec 8, 2021)

Saint Joseph - Patron of the Dying

O glorious St. Joseph, pray for me, assist me and defend me from Satan at the hour of my death.

- St. Anthony Mary Claret

Saint Joseph died a holy and happy death. He died gazing upon Jesus and resting in the arms of Mary. What greater death could a person experience? God has designated St. Joseph as the Patron of the dying because he wants us to experience a death similar to that of St. Joseph, a holy and happy death.

We need to be prepared for death because Satan always tries to get a soul to despair and turn away from our loving God at the hour of our death. We need the intercession of our Spiritual father (St. Joseph) to fortify us, protect us and fill us with trust in God's mercy and love.
