

To My Holy Trinity Family:

The last few weeks have been tough for the staff here at Holy Trinity. On Thursday September 24th one of our rectory employees had a death in her family. Please keep Graciela in your prayers as she mourns the loss of her mother. Her mom died on Thursday September 24th.

On Friday September 25th, our principal Karen Lloyd had a death in her family. Her father Glenn Austin died peacefully. Please keep Karen and her brother John in your prayers. The funeral mass will be on Monday October 5th at 7:00pm here at Holy Trinity.

As previously announced, Deacon Ray and Sandra Emnace are mourning the loss of Sandra's mom. The memorial mass for Sandra's mom will be on Saturday October 17th at 11:00am here at Holy Trinity. Please keep the family in your prayers.

The staff at Holy Trinity is a very dedicated team. They have been through a lot since the lockdown began. Please keep them in your prayers. We are here to serve you all.

Many of you have been asking me when we will return to mass inside the Church building. I miss being there as well. The answer is simple, that decision comes from the office of the Archbishop. We are essential in the eyes of God. Never forget that for a moment. The original disciples did not have big Churches like we do today. So let us unite ourselves with the original followers of Christ.

On Sunday November 22nd at the 10:30am mass will be honoring our police officers, firefighters, and active military. If you have a family member or are yourself one of our brave men or women who serves in these vocations, please join us for this special day. We will be offering a special blessing for you all. Thank You for your service.

In Christ,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Boundaries are critical, for you and for the children in your care. Establishing and maintaining boundaries helps teach children their importance, gives them the tools to establish their own, and to form appropriate and healthy relationships with other adults. You can avoid even a misconception of inappropriate behavior by upholding the boundaries you have established for yourself, allowing you more freedom to care for the children in your life.
