

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Happy Thanksgiving! This Thursday we as a nation pause to thank God for all of our blessings. 2020 has been a year like we have never seen before. But despite the hardships of 2020, we still have so much to be thankful for. I am grateful for my family, friends, brother priests, my health, and of course the Dodgers winning the World Series. Most importantly I am grateful to be your pastor. Serving you all is the greatest blessing of my life.

This week our parish office will be closed from Thursday November 26th through Sunday November 29th. We will be open our normal hours Monday- Wednesday this week. This allows our staff to enjoy the Thanksgiving Holiday with their loved ones.

This week the 5pm weekday mass will only take place on Monday and Tuesday. There is no 5pm mass on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday. The novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help will take place after the 8am mass this Wednesday November 25th.

We will have three masses to celebrate Thanksgiving Day this year. We will have a mass the night before Thanksgiving on Wednesday 11/25 at 6:30pm. On Thanksgiving Day Thursday 11/26 we will have two masses at 8:00am and 9:30am. We hope to see you there. I will be doing the mass the night before at 6:30pm, Fr. Mike will be doing the 8:00am, and Fr. Leo will be doing the 9:30am.

A special welcome to our firefighters, military, and police officers. We are so honored by your presence. We thank you for your service and may God protect you all. Your vocations are so very hard. We often only hear about the negative in what you do. Please know that our prayers are with you all each and every day. May St. Michael protect you all!

Next weekend starts Advent. Do you have your Advent wreath ready? I encourage each home to have an Advent wreath.

Happy Thanksgiving,
Fr. Ricardo
