

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Congratulations to the Los Angeles Rams on their Super Bowl Victory. What an exciting night it was for the City of Los Angeles. It is always exciting when your team wins. Although I am a Raider Fan, I am so happy for our city and especially for the fan base. Enjoy the Victory!

This Monday February 21st is Presidents Day. Our parish office will be closed for the day. We will only have one mass at 8:00am. The Church and Parking Lot will close after the mass. There will be no afternoon adoration or 5:00pm mass. Let us pray for our President and all government leaders that they will uphold the dignity of all human life from the moment of conception until a natural death.

The Rectory Backyard renovation is now complete. This money came from our Called to Renew Campaign. The priests have a space outside that they can use for relaxation and peace. Thank You to all of the donors.

We have two funerals this week at Holy Trinity. Tuesday at 9:30am and Friday at 9:30am. Please keep these families in your prayers as they gather for the funeral mass. Having a funeral mass is so important for our loved ones when they die. Let us continue to pray for all those that have died. I encourage all of you as Catholics to put in writing that you want a funeral mass when you die.

Ash Wednesday is on March 2nd. We will have two masses at 6:30am and 8:00am. We will have four Liturgy of the Words with the Distribution of Ashes at 4:00pm, 5:00pm, 6:00pm, and 7:00pm. There will be no adoration or novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help on Ash Wednesday. There will be the Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent at 5:30pm. There will be confession every Friday during Lent from after the 5:00pm mass until 6:30pm.

Have you completed your 2022 Together in Mission pledge yet? How can you help those most in need this year? May God Bless you!

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
