

To My Holy Trinity Family:

It is good to be back. A special thank you to Fr. Leo and Msgr. Herres for taking extra masses while I was away in New York for the wedding. When I landed at JFK, I was informed Cross Catholic Outreach had to cancel. It was not their fault, the priest fell ill. I was panicked, but Fr. Leo and Msgr. Herres came through. A special congratulations to Chris and Monica Escueta our newly married couple.

A special thank you to Fr. Leo for leading off our three part Friday Evening Lenten Parish Mission. This week we will have Tommy Green with us. He will be discussing ‘Good Friday.’ Tommy is on his pastoral internship at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish in Rowland Heights. He is a dynamic speaker and you will not want to miss out. We begin with adoration from 6:00pm-7:00pm and will conclude with a spiritual talk at 7:00pm. Please join us, all age groups are welcome.

Here is an update on our 2022 Together in Mission Campaign:

Parish Goal: $30,027.00

Amount Pledge: $17,340.00- 57.7%

Amount Paid : $12,190.00- 40.6%

Thank You for those of you who have pledged. May God reward you for your goodness.

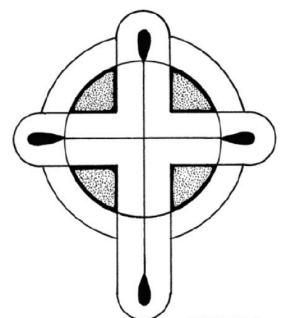

This Friday is April 1st, First Friday. We will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 8:30am until 12:00pm. Due to the Parish Mission and Stations of the Cross, evening adoration will be from 6:00pm until 7:00pm only.

Have you gone to confession yet during Lent? Do not wait to go, the time is now to repent and to become holier.

A Blessed Lent!

In Christ,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
