

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Happy Easter ! Jesus is risen as He promised. All of the pain and suffering that he went through is over. He has conquered sin and death for us all! May the Risen Christ bring you many blessings this Easter Season.

Next Sunday April 24th is Divine Mercy Sunday. All are invited at 3:00pm for our annual celebration in the Church. Please bring your Divine Mercy religious objects for a special blessing. We will pray the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy right at 3:00pm. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed and there will be a spiritual talk.

Congratulations to all of those who completed their Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. We are so proud of you and we welcome you to the Catholic Family as fully initiated members.

There will be no 5:00pm mass this Thursday April 21st. Deacon Ray will be leading a Communion Service. We will still have mass at 8:00am.

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
