

Dear Parishioners of Holy Trinity,

I want to say a big thank you to all of you for your kindness and support during my 10-month internship here at the parish. It's been a wonderful time, and now I have to go back to the seminary to continue my studies. A special thank goes to Fr. Ricky, our pastor, who has been a constant source of help, guidance, and support throughout my internship. His wisdom and encouragement have been invaluable to me, and I am truly grateful for his mentorship.

I would also like to express my gratitude to Fr. Mike, Msgr. Herres, Fr. Leo, and Dcn. Ray for their support and assistance during my time here. Their presence and willingness to help have made a significant impact on my experience.

I am truly grateful to the office staff and different groups at the parish for how welcoming and accepting you all showed to me. Your guidance, encouragement, love, support, and prayers have meant a lot to me. I appreciate the time and knowledge you shared with me, helping me learn and grow in my vocation.

Your generosity and support have made a real difference. Whether through your financial contributions, kind words, or acts of service, you have helped me carry out my responsibilities and fulfill my duties. Your belief in me has given me confidence in my calling to serve God and His people.

I am also thankful for the friendships I have made here. The memories we created together will always hold a special place in my heart. I will carry them with me as I continue my journey.

As I get ready to go back to the seminary, please keep me in your prayers. I will remember all of you in my prayers too. May God bless each one of you abundantly for the love and support you have shown me.

In conclusion, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to the entire parish community, including Fr. Ricky, Fr. Mike, Msgr. Herres, Fr. Leo, and Deacon Ray. Your friendship, guidance, and support have made a lasting impact on my life. Even though I will be physically leaving, I will always cherish the memories we shared. Thank you again, and God bless you all.

DID YOU KNOW?

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse. Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children’s friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child’s friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it’s critical that you remain calm, and don’t overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Holy Trinity School, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student’s emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources.
