

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi Sunday. It is a very special day where we Catholics focus on the most Holy Eucharist. We are so blessed to be Catholic. Every single time we walk into a Church, Jesus is present in tabernacle. The Blessed Sacrament deserves to be treated with the utmost respect and reverence. We need to dress our best when we come to mass. We need to arrive on time and not leave early. Going to frequent confession is also a wonderful way to prepare for our Lord.

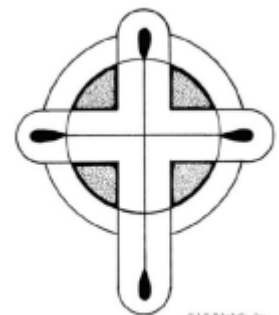

We live in a culture now that believes people can do anything they want and still receive the most Holy Eucharist. We have lost a sense of humility and respect for our Lord. My friends, we need to be in the state of grace to receive our Lord. We are all sinners, myself included. We all need to grow in our holiness. Jesus came for us, but let us not become so arrogant and take advantage of the Lord's mercy and compassion. We need to do our part and turn away from sin. I see the good in all of you every day. Let us not be lukewarm in our faith, let us be holy for Jesus.

Today in our country we also celebrate Father's Day. Happy Father's Day to all of our dads! I am super blessed with my Dad. My Dad is the hardest working person that I know. He taught me about being loyal and putting the needs of others first. We also in a special way remember the dads that have died. May all of our deceased dads have the reward of eternal life in heaven.

All are invited to the 5:00pm mass this Friday as we honor the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The novena will run daily through this Thursday. Please join us for this very special day in our Catholic Faith.

The summer is coming up. Fr. Leo will be out of the country until the end of July. Please keep him in your prayers. Fr. Mike and I will be traveling a bit in July. A few weekday masses will be cancelled in July and August, just for the summer. Thanks for understanding.

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
