

To My Holy Trinity Family:

This weekend is very special for us as we celebrate Holy Trinity Sunday! Our parish has been around for 98 years now! We have all received so many blessings from this parish. God has blessed us abundantly! May our parish be blessed for many more years to come!

Next Sunday we say goodbye to our wonderful seminarian Quoc. He has truly been a blessing to us all. We will have a reception for him after the 7:30am, 9:00am, 10:30am, and 12:00pm masses in the pavilion. Please stop by and let him know how much he has meant to you. Please keep him in your prayers. His official last day with us will be Wednesday June 14th. He will be returning to St. John' Seminary to finish his formation. God willing he will be ordained a priest on May 31st 2025. Quoc we love you and are praying for you.

Next Saturday June 10th after the 5pm mass we will have a procession of the Blessed Sacrament for Chorpus Christi Sunday. All are invited to joins us for this special event.

The Los Angeles Dodgers recent attack on the Catholic Church and our religious sisters is sad and disheartening. As a lifelong Dodger fan this deeply troubles me. I will no longer support the team. Our Catholic Faith must come first. Please come for a special holy hour to pray for our sisters on Sunday June 11th from 3:30pm until 4:30pm. Let us pray for the Dodgers and all who mock people of faith.

I would like to thank you all for your support of Fr. Leo and I as we celebrate 15 years of ordination. Being a priest is a big gift and blessing. These last nine years as your pastor here at Holy Trinity has been the biggest honor of my life. Let us continue to pray for more vocations to priesthood, especially in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Congratulation to Fr. Mike Perucho who celebrates 12 years as a priest today, June 4th. Msgr. Herres celebrated 51 years as a priest on May 27th.

DID YOU KNOW?

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse. Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children's friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child's friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it's critical that you remain calm, and don't overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Holy Trinity School, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources.
