

To My Holy Trinity Family:

My first term as your pastor ends on June 30th 2022. I have been waiting and trusting in God's will for me. I am pleased to announce that Archbishop Gomez has renewed me for six more years as pastor at Holy Trinity through June 30th 2028. These past eight years have been wonderful. I have truly been blessed in so many ways. Please keep me in your prayers, as I do for you. After June 30. 2028 I will move one, but I am pleased I am with you for six more years.

We conclude the Easter Season this weekend as we celebrate Pentecost. The Holy Spirit is always with us, and Jesus has sent the disciples to go out and to spread the Gospel abroad. We are called to spread the good news of Jesus Christ on a daily basis. We are never alone in this world. The Holy Spirit is always with us. How are you doing your part to bring the Good News of Jesus to one another?

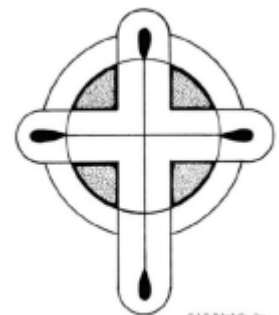

Next Sunday is very important for us as we celebrate, The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We are blessed at our parish to be named after the Holy Trinity. All are invited to join us praying our novena daily after the 5:00pm mass. On the final night of the novena Saturday June 11th, we will have a reception after in the school pavilion.

Holy Trinity School ends the school year this Friday June 10th. Congratulations to all of our students on another wonderful year. A special thank you to all of our hard working faculty and staff. But in a very special way I would like to thank our awesome principal Karen Lloyd on another fantastic school year.

Holy Trinity School is offering a summer school program this year once again. All school aged parishioners are invited to join us and attend. We will also be offering a summer camp. For more information please call, Holy Trinity School.

This Sunday we will be giving out pastries after the morning masses as we celebrate Fr Leo and I's ordination anniversary. 14 years and counting. Thank You for your support

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
