

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Registration has begun for Religious Education and High School Confirmation. Rheza our Director of Religious Education, and Nicko our Director of High School Confirmation, will be present from 10am until 1pm this Sunday 7/17 at the School Pavilion. Please come and find out the programs we have to offer for the coming year. Classes begin after Labor Day.

This is the final week of summer school and summer camp for Holy Trinity School. The new school year will start on Monday August 22nd. Holy Trinity School is a wonderful school with many different programs to offer. We strive for academic excellence and forming holy disciples of Christ. For more information, please stop by the school.

Fr. Mike is on vacation through the end of July. He works very hard and is on a much deserved vacation. Fr. Leo is off through the end of July. I will be leading a pilgrimage from 7/19-7/29. While I am away four weekday masses will be cancelled.

There will be no mass on the following times:

Tuesday July 19th- No 5pm Mass

Wednesday July 20th- No 8am Mass

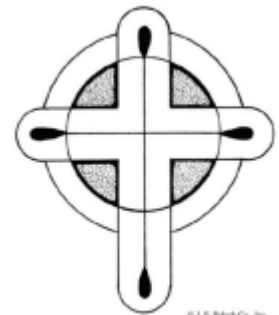

Tuesday July 26th- No 5pm Mass

Wednesday July 27th- No 8am Mass

The good news is, we will still have mass daily while I am gone. We are blessed to offer two daily masses still at Holy Trinity. Most parishes only offer one mass, some parishes do not have daily masses. A special thank you to Msgr. Herres for taking extra masses while I am gone.

A familiar friend to our parish, Fr. Paolo Garcia will be with us at Holy Trinity Next Sunday July 24th. He will be doing three masses. Please welcome him back! See you on Saturday July 30th!

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
