

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Well things keep on changing. We are now celebrating mass outside in the school pavilion. We are so blessed to have the shaded covering in the pavilion. This was built by our own parishioner. The first week of masses outside have gone extremely well. We all miss being in our beautiful Church building, but God provides for us always. Let us choose to stay positive.

On Friday July 17th the Archdiocese of Los Angeles made the decision to start the school year via distance learning. This impacts Holy Trinity School, Religious Education, High School Confirmation, and Adult RCIA. The safety and health of our students and faculty is our number one priority. We will not return to in person instruction until the Archdiocese of Los Angeles tells us we can do so.

Our team of volunteers are working very hard to make sure everything is going smoothly. When you see them thank them for all of their hard work. A special thank you to Ray Emnace our volunteer coordinator. Please keep Ray in your prayers this week as he goes on his retreat before he can be ordained a Deacon in August. God willing he will be ordained a deacon August 22nd. Please keep Ray, his wife Sandra, and their classmates in your prayers please.

A special thank you to Fr. Mike for taking extra masses for me last week so that I could take five days off last week. We are so blessed to have Fr. Mike and Fr. Leo with us at Holy Trinity.

Stay Safe and Healthy,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
