

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Happy 4th of July! Today we thank God for the gift of living in the United States. Jesus has blessed us all by living in this wonderful country. May God continue to bless us all in the United States of America.

Emotions are elevated right now since the Supreme Court overturned Roe vs Wade. Security, as always is a top priority. God willing nobody will try and disrupt us at Holy Trinity, however we need to be vigilant. If you see something, do something. If there is an immediate threat, call 911. We should not be paranoid, but we need to be aware of our surroundings at all times. May St. Michael protect us all.

The parish office will be closed on Sunday July 3rd and Monday July 4th. We will reopen on Tuesday July 5th at the normal time. 8:30am. Please enjoy the long holiday weekend with your family.

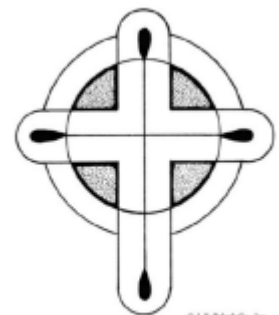

I highly encourage everyone to come to mass on Monday July 4th at 8:00am to pray for our country. Now, more than ever, we need to be people of prayer. There is so much anger and rage right now. From conception to a natural death, all human life has dignity and value. Let us strive to be the face of Christ to one another. Life is a precious gift from God. Let us be the disciples that Jesus is calling us to be.

We have had a couple of maintenance projects going on the last couple of weeks. Next time you are in the parking lot, look at the basketball backboards, they are newly painted. The two faculty bathrooms in the parish school have been redone. Our statue of St. Joseph is now complete and I hope it has returned to us by the time you read this. We have done some work to the doors of the sacristy as well, we had to replace a couple of hinges. As always thank you for your generosity and support of the parish.

God Bless America!

In Christ,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
