

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Last Saturday after the 5pm mass we discovered a water leak in our Chiller unit in the Church. It looked like it was raining in the altar server room. God Bless Maria and her husband who came right away to clean it up. There is a leak in the system. I am hoping that by the time you read this, it is fixed and all is working properly. As you know in the summer, we use the chiller a lot in the Church. I will keep you updated if further repairs are needed. A special thank you to our business manager Ed Gonzalez that came in on a Sunday to help oversee the fixing of the chiller.

This Tuesday August 1st all men of the parish are invited to a Holy Hour from 7:30pm until 8:30pm in the Church. We are in a period of Eucharistic Revival in the Catholic Church. Men I challenge you to come and spend time with Jesus and your brothers.

This Friday August 4th is already First Friday. We will have confession after the 5pm mass until 6:30pm. We will also have two extra times for adoration from after the 8am mass until 12pm and from after the 5pm mass until 8pm. We really need more people to be in the Church from 7pm until 8pm. Last month there were only a handle full of people in the Church and not one male. I encourage us to grow in our love and devotion of the Blessed Sacrament.

We will have one more day of registrations for Religious Education and High School Confirmation . The final day will be on Sunday August 13th from 10am until 1pm in the School Pavilion. This is the final day and we will not have new registrations after this day.

I would like to thank you all for your generosity to our Mission Speaker last weekend. Through the first four masses we raised, $2,944.00. Next Weekend I will post the grand total in the bulletin. Please know that I pray for you all daily. God Bless you always!

In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse. Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children's friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child's friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it's critical that you remain calm, and don't overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Small class sizes with under 20 students makes it possible for us to create a personalized experience for your child to help them excel. Did you know that the Catholic Education Foundation of Los Angeles has received a $50 million gift to provide financial support to new students enrolling in an Archdiocesan school for fall. Catholic education is affordable and tuition assistance is available! HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Holy Trinity School, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources.
