

To My Holy Trinity Family:

It is hard to believe, but the month of July is coming to an end. As we move into August this week, we are reminded that the new school year is fast approaching. Enjoy your final weeks of the summer. Take time to slow down and have some fun.

Holy Trinity has been assigned a seminarian for the coming academic year. Quoc Vo will be joining us on Friday August 26th until early June. Please mark your calendars for Sunday August 28th, we will have a welcome reception for him from after the 7:30am mass until 12:00pm in the School Pavilion. All are welcome to stop by and welcome him to our wonderful parish.

Every three years the diocesan priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles gather for a convocation. This year that will take place August 22nd through August 25th. All of the priests at Holy Trinity are Diocesan Priests, so there will be masses cancelled during the time that we are away with Archbishop Gomez and the diocesan priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. So that you can plan ahead here is the schedule for the week of the priestly convocation.

Monday August 22nd- 8:00am Mass, No 5:00pm Mass

Tuesday August 23rd- All Masses Cancelled

Wednesday August 24th- All Masses Cancelled

Thursday August 25th- All Masses Cancelled

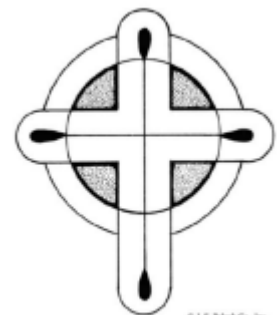

Friday August 25th- 8:00am Mass and 5:00pm Mass

Cristo Rey and Our Mother of Good Counsel are run by religious order priests if you are looking to attend daily mass while we are gone that week.

I am so glad to be home!

In Christ,

Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person's behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.
