

To My Holy Trinity Family:

Over the summer we have done a lot of work to the school building. We have painted several of the rooms and the front office. We have remodeled the two faculty restrooms. We have painted the hand rails and the brick wall in the pavilion. These facilities get used often and are “used and abused.” The school building is looking fresh and ready to go for the new school year.

Our rectory has seen some improvements as well. Like many of your homes, the building is old. The ceiling in my bedroom has been worked on over the summer. We will now move into my office at the rectory. Little by little we will get it done. Maintenance is very important for our parish property. This is only possible because of your generosity. Most of the rooms in the rectory have never been worked on. Thank you for your love of the parish.

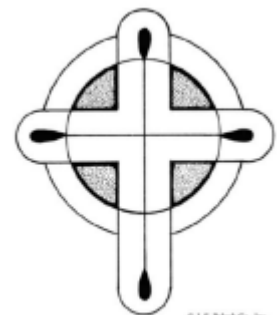

Our seminarian intern Quoc Vo will arrive on Friday August 26th. All are invited to a welcome reception for him on Sunday August 28th from after the 7:30am mass until 12:00pm. Please stop by the school pavilion and welcome him to our wonderful parish. Come by for fellowship and free food.

Today, August 14th, is the last day we will take new registrations for High School Confirmation and Religious Education. Registration will be from 10am until 1pm in the School Pavilion. Both of our directors, Nicko and Rheza will be there to answer any questions that you may have.

RCIA registration for adults will be on 8/21, 8/28, and 9/11 from 9am until 1pm. If you need to finish your Sacraments of Initiation, do not wait, now is the time. We have a wonderful program that we would love for you to be a part of.

From 8/22-8/25 the priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles will be away for a convocation. The following mass are cancelled that week: 8/22-No Adoration or 5pm Mass, 8/23-8/25: No Adoration and No Masses. The normal schedule resumes on Friday 8/26.

In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Safety tips for kids playing sports this school year. Sports seasons start early, even for young children, and while it's great that they're out getting exercise and learning new skills, safety is still a top priority. It's recommended that all children who are playing school sports have an annual physical, and relevant health information (allergies, conditions, etc.) should be shared with coaches. Parents should make sure their children have the right gear, and that it fits and works wells. Children should stay well-hydrated, well-fed, and well-rested to keep up their energy and strength. Student athletes should be learning to be kind and fair, too, no matter the outcome of the game.

VIRTUS: PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN & KEEPING THE PROMISE ALIVE

Holy Trinity Parish's Safeguard the Children Committee plays a crucial role in assuring that the safeguard initiatives found in the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People have been made a priority in our parish and school and that the Archdiocesan safe environment programs, policies and procedures are being implemented throughout our parish/school community. All adults over the age of 18 who are involved in volunteer ministry with children must attend a mandatory training session called Protecting God's Children. This initial 2 ½ hour training session will be offered in our parish on Saturday, August 20th at 2:00pm or Thursday, September 1st at 6:00pm. The certificate from this class is good for 4 years. If you need to re-certify, a Keeping the Promise Alive class will be offered in our parish on Saturday, September 10th at 2:30pm or Thursday, September 15th at 6:30pm. These classes are for adults over the age of 18 only and are held in the school. Space is limited and a reservation is required. For more information or to reserve your space - contact the school office at (323) 663 – 2064.
