DID YOU KNOW?

Boundaries are critical, for you and for the children in your care. Establishing and maintaining boundaries helps teach children their importance, gives them the tools to establish their own, and to form appropriate and healthy relationships with other adults. You can avoid even a misconception of inappropriate behavior by upholding the boundaries you have established for yourself, allowing you more freedom to care for the children in your life. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION’S CORNER

Dear Religious Education Family & Friends: Classes for Religious Education Program had just started, September 12. It was a new experience for all of us who are teaching religious classes. We thank our Catechists for volunteering their time, skills and resources to teach our little one. We would like thank you too, parents for your patience and cooperation in following rules and guidelines during online distance learning class to make everything a little bit easier for all of us!

We will continue to conduct classes via Zoom until we were advised to return back to our school classrooms. We are praying and hoping for this day to happen! We encourage all parents to come to church every Sunday with your children. Part of our children faith formation is to participate in the sacramental life of the church and there is no better way for them but to witness your faith. So, come to church with them and receive the sacraments of reconciliation and communion.

Last September 8, we observed one of the beautiful feasts of our Lady, the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary; her birthday. Next month, October is the month dedicated to the Holy Rosary in honor of our Lady. Praying the holy rosary is a beautiful tradition of us, Catholics. , In our parish we have a beautiful tradition of the Living Rosary. We hope that this year even with this pandemic we as a parish family can still continue this tradition come October. Let us hope and pray for that.

Despite of this global pandemic, still we have so much to thank God for. Let us look around and let us appreciate the beauty of God’s creation; the air that we breathe; the water that we drink; the goodness of the people around us, and so many more things. Let us not forget that God never abandoned us.

Confirmation Program will begin on September 18, so you still have a chance to register.
