

To My Holy Trinity Family:

A Blessed Labor Day weekend to you all. Our parish office will be closed on Monday September 4th. We will only have one mass at 8am. The Church and parking lot will be closed for the day at 9:30am. I would like to thank all of our wonderful clergy, parish volunteers and staff that labor so hard for us at Holy Trinity.

During the month of September, there will be NO MASS ON THURSDAYS. That is my day off and Msgr. Herres will be gone on the weekdays during September. Deacon Ray will still lead afternoon adoration and will be doing a Communion Service on Thursdays at 5pm throughout the month of September. We are blessed with many neighboring parishes if you would like to attend mass on Thursdays. Thank You for understanding.

High School Confirmation and Religious Education start up this week. A special thank you to Nicko and Rheza our Directors. I know without a doubt this will be another wonderful year. May God bless our catechists for their time and dedication to our children and their families.

There will be a Holy Hour this Tuesday September 5th from 7:30pm-8:30pm in the Church. All men of the parish are invited to come and spend some time with Christ and their brothers in prayer.

Please mark your calendar for Sunday September 24th at 10:30am. This will be my FINAL SUNDAY MASS With you as your pastor. There will be a reception at the School Pavilion from 8am until 1pm. I can't thank you enough for you love and support for me during this moment of transition.

Fr. Mike Perucho is not only one of my best friends, he really is one of the best priests that I know. Holy Trinity will be very blessed to have him as your leader. Please keep him in your prayers.

In Christ,
Fr. Ricardo

DID YOU KNOW?

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse. Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children’s friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child’s friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it’s critical that you remain calm, and don’t overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL

Are you happy with your child’s school experience? Consider sending your child to our parish school – where the values taught in the classroom reflect the values of your home. Small class sizes with under 20 students makes it possible for us to create a personalized experience for your child to help them excel. Did you know that the Catholic Education Foundation of Los Angeles has received a $50 million gift to provide financial support to new students enrolling in an Archdiocesan school for fall. Catholic education is affordable and tuition assistance is available! If you would like to arrange a tour of our parish school or get additional information on enrollment and financial assistance, please call us at (323) 663 -2064 or email our principal at klloyd@holytrinity-la.com Give your child the gift of a Catholic education this fall!

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Holy Trinity School, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student’s emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources.
