

“Murcia Noroeste” Youth Symphony Orchestra Spain

The "Murcia Noroeste" Youth Symphony Orchestra is an artistic and educational entity founded in 2015 and established as a non-profit association.

The members of the orchestra are between 14 and 23 years old. A pedagogical team, made up of teachers from each instrumental specialty, works with young people.

The orchestra also works in intensive rehearsals during the holiday and weekends.

The orchestra promotes values such as solidarity, integration, discipline, camaraderie and teamwork. For example, it has signed a collaboration agreement with the Association of Families of People with Mental Disabilities of Noroeste, whose main objective is the commitment of the two associations jointly to achieve the full integration of people with disabilities through music and in an orchestra.

Juan Jesús López Sandoval, conductor

Juan Jesús López Sandoval began his musical career with the Banda de Música association in Calasparra (Murcia).

He plays the tuba and has a degree in composition and conducting. He received a prize from the Calasparra Town Hall for his professional career and his work in favour of musical culture. He has conducted prestigious ensembles, including the Philharmonic Orchestras of Ploiesti, Botosani, Murcia, Malaga, etc.

Throughout his career, he has always received praises from the public and critics for his expressive direction and refined and virtuous technique.

Since 2004, he has been a professor of conducting at the Conservatory of Music of Málaga. He is currently professor of orchestra at the Professional Conservatory of Music in Motril (Granada).
