Who We Are

Our state and local auxiliaries are the life-blood of our organization. The community efforts of these groups are the foundation upon which we build our core beliefs.

Here are some examples:

- Working with the court systems for abused and neglected children
- Supporting CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) volunteers
- Recognizing outstanding members of the legal community
- Supporting law-related education in schools
- Offering scholarships to deserving law students
- Plus much, much more!
- Since 2004, ALA has awarded more than $80,000 to our state and local auxiliaries in recognition of their outstanding projects.

"The fact is that knowledge about the Constitution and the Court is not something that is handed down through the gene pool; every generation has to learn it."
