

CALLING ALL CIVICS SUPERSTARS!

We are looking for that outstanding high school senior who has overachieved during high school in law-related activities. Were you a superstar on your school's Mock Trial Team? President of the Student Body? Write a winning essay for NCSC? A wonder kid in Model UN? If so, you need to apply NOW for the $10,000 Catherine G. Jurgemeyer Memorial Scholarship!

The late Catherine G. Jurgemeyer was a formidable member of the American Lawyers Alliance, having created and implemented the "Law in a Free Society" project as well as an active member of the ALA Teacher of the Year Award Committee. In honor of her memory, her daughter, Nancy J. Haar, has generously funded this annual $10,000 scholarship for a deserving high school senior whose body of work both inside and outside the classroom has demonstrated a special dedication to law-related education with academic excellence.

The Jurgemeyer Scholarship is awarded and judged without regard to gender, race, color, religion, national origin, or disability.

Purpose

To award a one-time college scholarship to a deserving high school senior whose body of work both inside and outside the classroom has demonstrated a special dedication to law-related education with academic excellence. Examples of such dedication could include, but are not limited to:

- Involvement with high school Mock Trial, We The People, or Model United Nations competitions
- Local government or community involvement
- Law-related educational projects
- Leadership in school government, law-related or civic minded clubs
- Research papers/videos
- Drafting legislation

The Award

ONE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT WILL BE CHOSEN. All applications will be screened and graded by a panel of ALA members. The winner will be announced no later than July 1 and will be presented a check in the amount of $10,000 at the Annual Meeting of the American Lawyers Alliance in August. An additional $1,000 for hotel and travel expenses will be given to the recipient to attend the Awards Breakfast. If the ALA Annual Meeting is virtual, there will be no travel expenses.
