

Amber McAtee, a Virginia native now residing in Maryland, has experience in many dance styles, including Ballet, Jazz, Lyrical, Acro, Contemporary, and Musical Theatre. Amber grew up in the competition dance world, attending regionals, nationals, and conventions. She has won numerous choreography awards, including dances for Nationals championship, Worlds, and Battle of the Seas. Ms. McAtee hopes to continue to share her passion and love of dance with her students, and above all, she believes that dance should be fun and accessible to all.
