

Robyn Marie (Baumgartner) Jangula entered the gates of heaven, surrounded by her family and loved ones, on Wednesday, March 21, 2012 at Med Center One Hospital in Bismarck, North Dakota. Robyn was the wife of Todd Jangula and the wonderful mother of Trenten, Dalten, and Colten, all of Napoleon. Robyn was born on September 26, 1975 to David and Sandra (Jangula) Baumgartner of Braddock, North Dakota. Robyn was born in Bismarck, ND and raised in Napoleon. She graduated from Napoleon High school. She received a medical transcription degree and worked several years as a transcriptionist. She also had worked for the Napoleon Care Center for 14 years. She was currently the Logan County Emergency Manager.

Robyn dearly loved her family and leaves behind her husband, three sons, her parents, and her three brothers and their families; Chris and Tiffany (Kreitingner) Baumgartner and children Simon, Lucia, Benedict, and Jude of Bismarck; Anthony and Jessica (Messmer) Baumgartner and children Emmrey, Easten, and Westen of Braddock; Ryan and Erin (Graham) Baumgartner and daughter Tristyn of Sidney, Montana. Robyn will always be remembered for her generous heart to all who knew her, her hard work ethic, her caring personality, her sense of humor, and her love for her family. She was always more than willing to help anyone in need. She had a special love for her nephews and nieces and had a gift for working with the elderly, which grew from her love of being with her grandparents. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her. She was so proud of her boys and was always known for having a good story about them to share.

Robyn was preceded in death by her grandfathers, Adam Jangula of Hazelton, and Victor Baumgartner of Braddock and grandmother by marriage, Shirlene Schumacher.
