MINISTERIAL CERTIFICATION

As of April 2008, the Northeastern District Assembly approved the following criteria for certification for all ministerial candidates—elders and evangelists. Ministerial candidates must complete 24 credits by June of their year of ordination, as follows:

| | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------|---|
| 2 semesters | Old Testament | 4 credits (above introductory level) |
| 2 semesters | New Testament | 4 credits (above introductory level) |
| 6 semesters | Practical Theology | 12 credits (Including Evangelism, Church History, Church Organization, Pastoral Administration, Pastoral Counseling, Missions, Teacher Training, and Homiletics) |
| 2 semesters | Doctrine | 4 credits |

Note: A one-semester course is 2 credits. A two-semester course is 4 credits. If, for example, a student was to enter the Learning Center program to begin his or her coursework for Ministerial Certification, it would take a minimum 3 years to complete that program.

Transfer credits from other institutions are not accepted by the NEDA Board of Examiners. The Board of Ministry Development is currently preparing certification programs for deacons and trustees, missionaries, and Sunday School teachers.
