In 2017 the network worked on the following projects:

1. New membership drive
2. Refreshing the dedicated Common Thread website
3. Follow-up work related to the 2015 CHOGM Communiqué, including engagement with Commonwealth Telecommunications Organisation and other relevant Commonwealth bodies
4. Consolidating existing members’ engagement in the network through project work
5. Developing links with other networks in the privacy and data protection global community