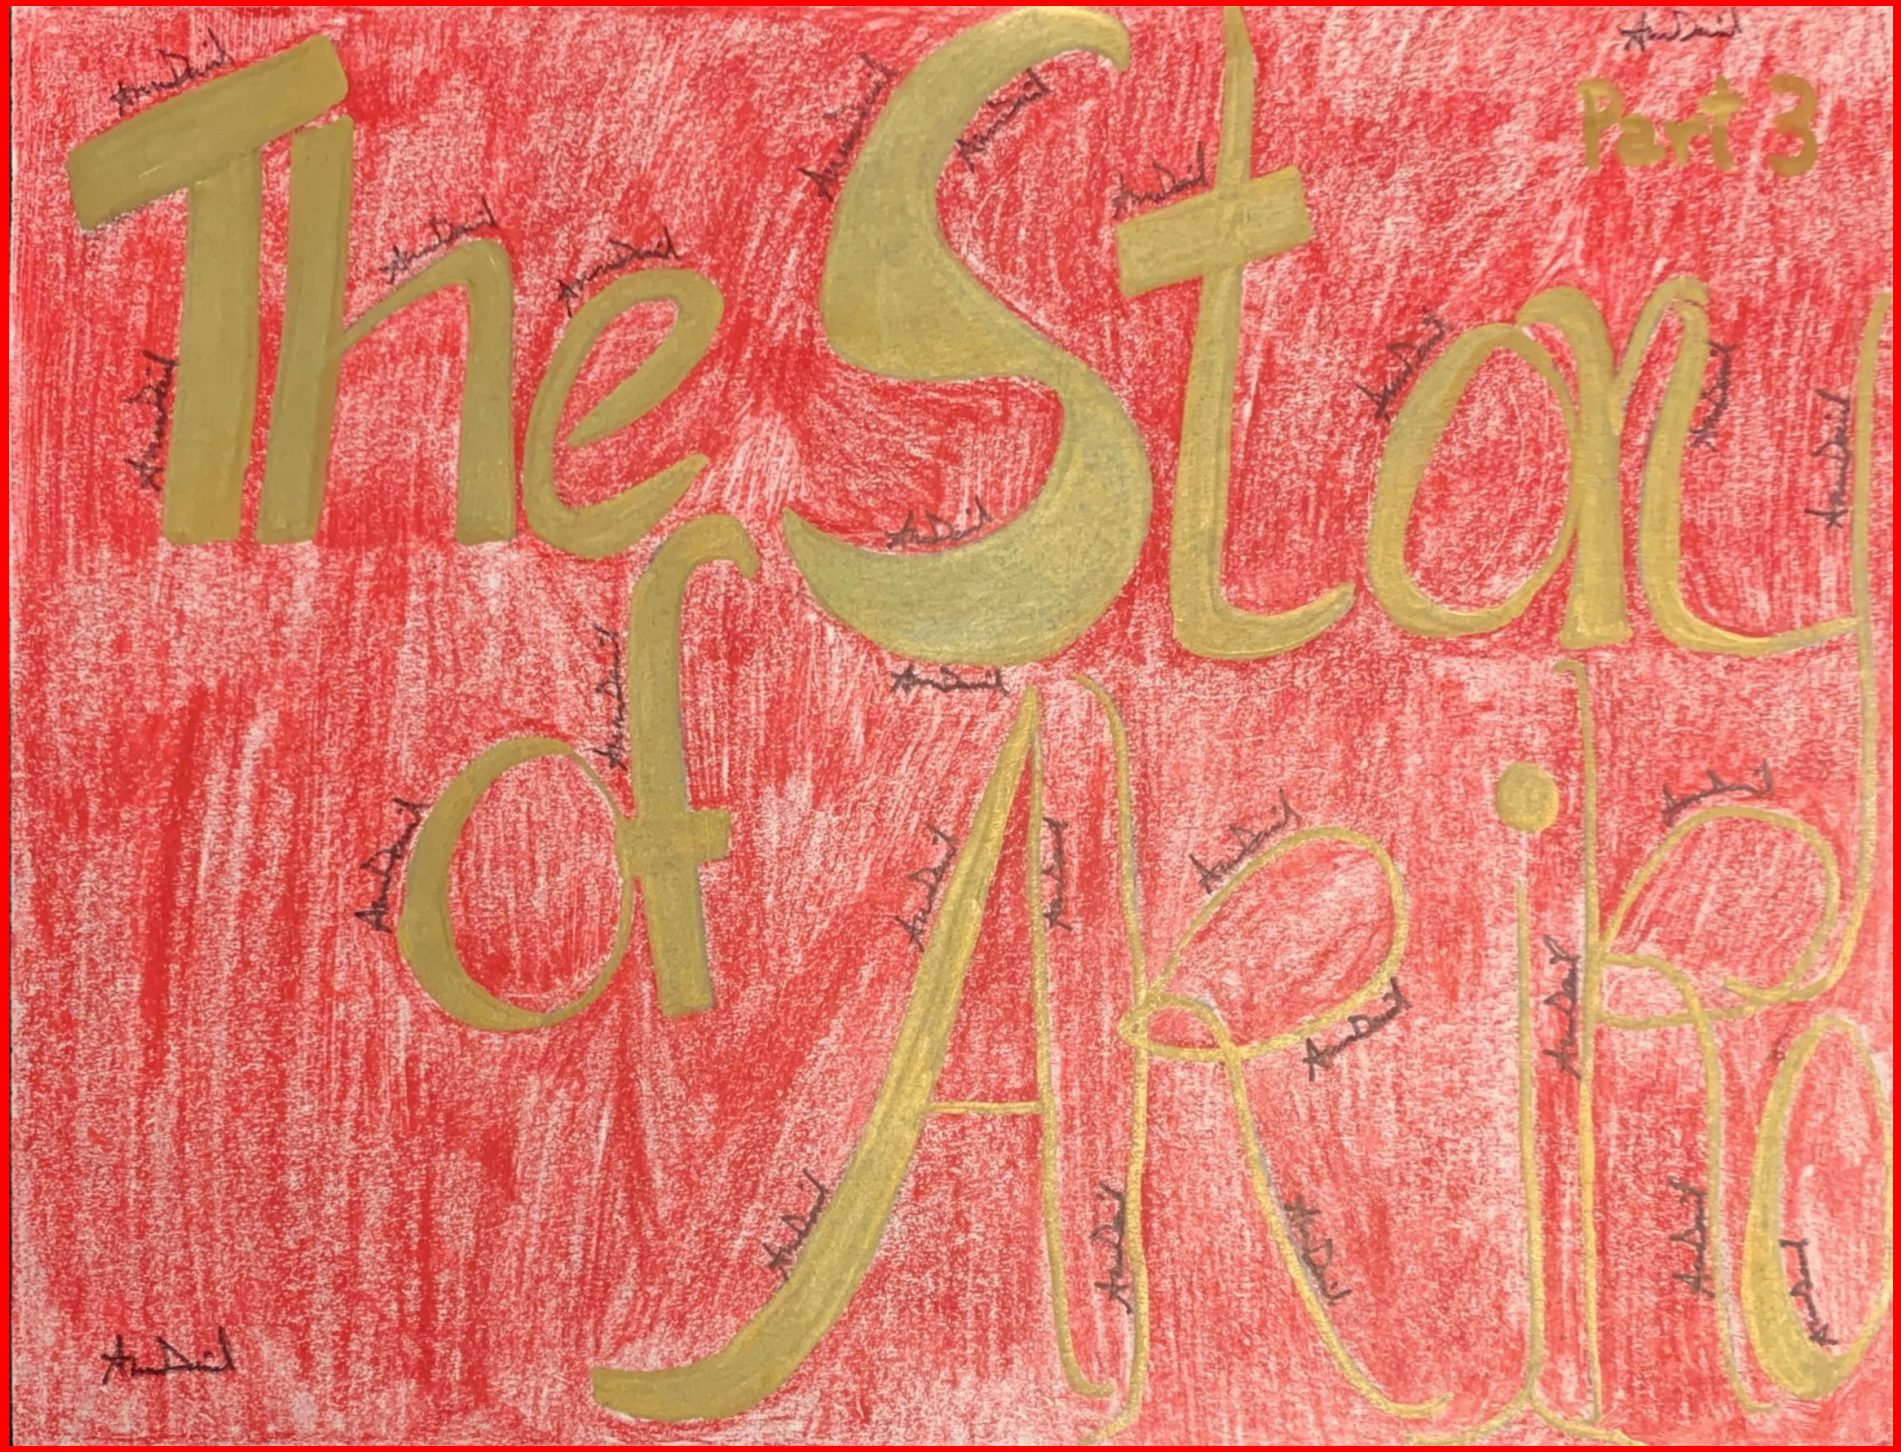
The Story of Akiko Part 3

Story and illustrations by Annu Joanna Paul Daniel

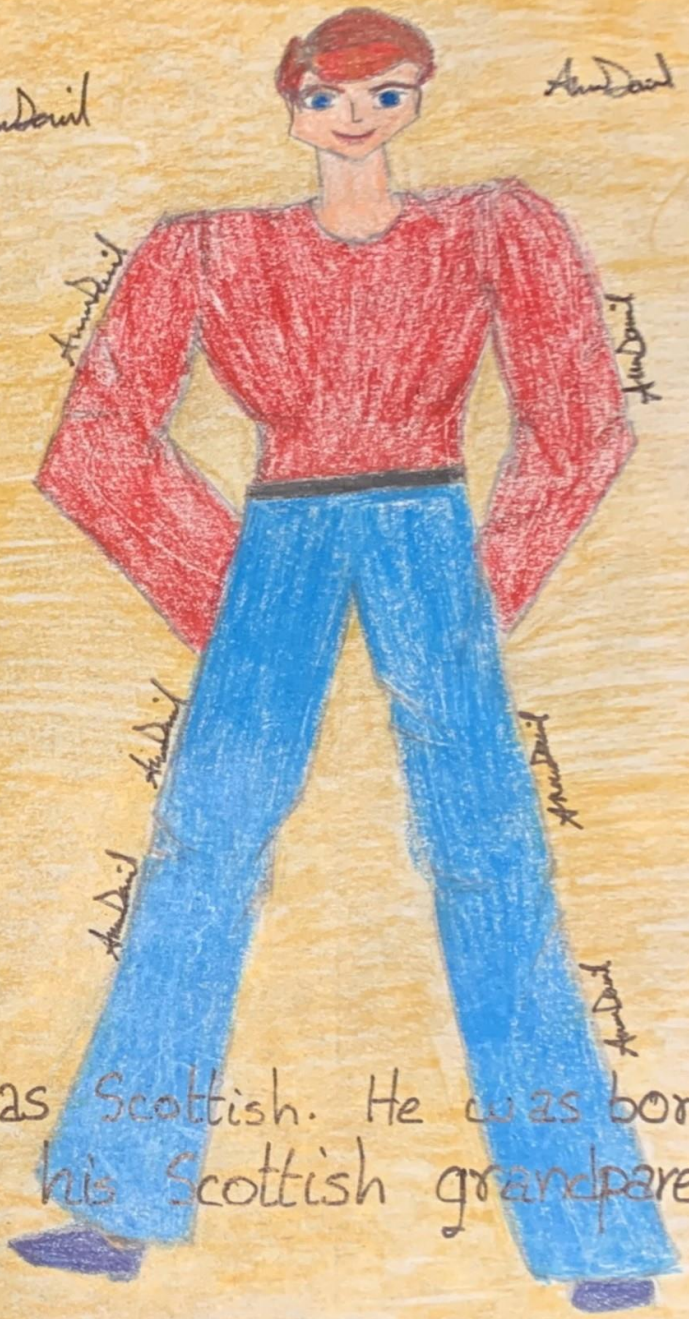
Foreword

I thank my mother, Nileena, for all the encouragement, all the appreciation, and all the acknowledgement that she has given to me in writing this book.



The Star
Part 3
of Afric

Akiko became the biggest producer of rice in Japan.



Akiko's dad lived in Bombay. He was Scottish. He was born and raised in Bombay because his Scottish grandparents settled in Bombay.

Akiko's mom lived in Paris because she was a well accomplished fashion designer. Akiko's mom was born and raised in Japan.

Akiko was born in Japan. Akiko's mom and dad visited Akiko every six months. They would stay with Akiko for one month and then leave to their destinations for work.

Akiko's mom and dad were married for thirty five years. Akiko was thirty two years old. Akiko's father worked for the Merchant Navy in Bombay Akiko's dad met a nice youngman in the Merchant Navy in Bombay. Akiko's dad introduced the nice Scottish young man to Akiko.

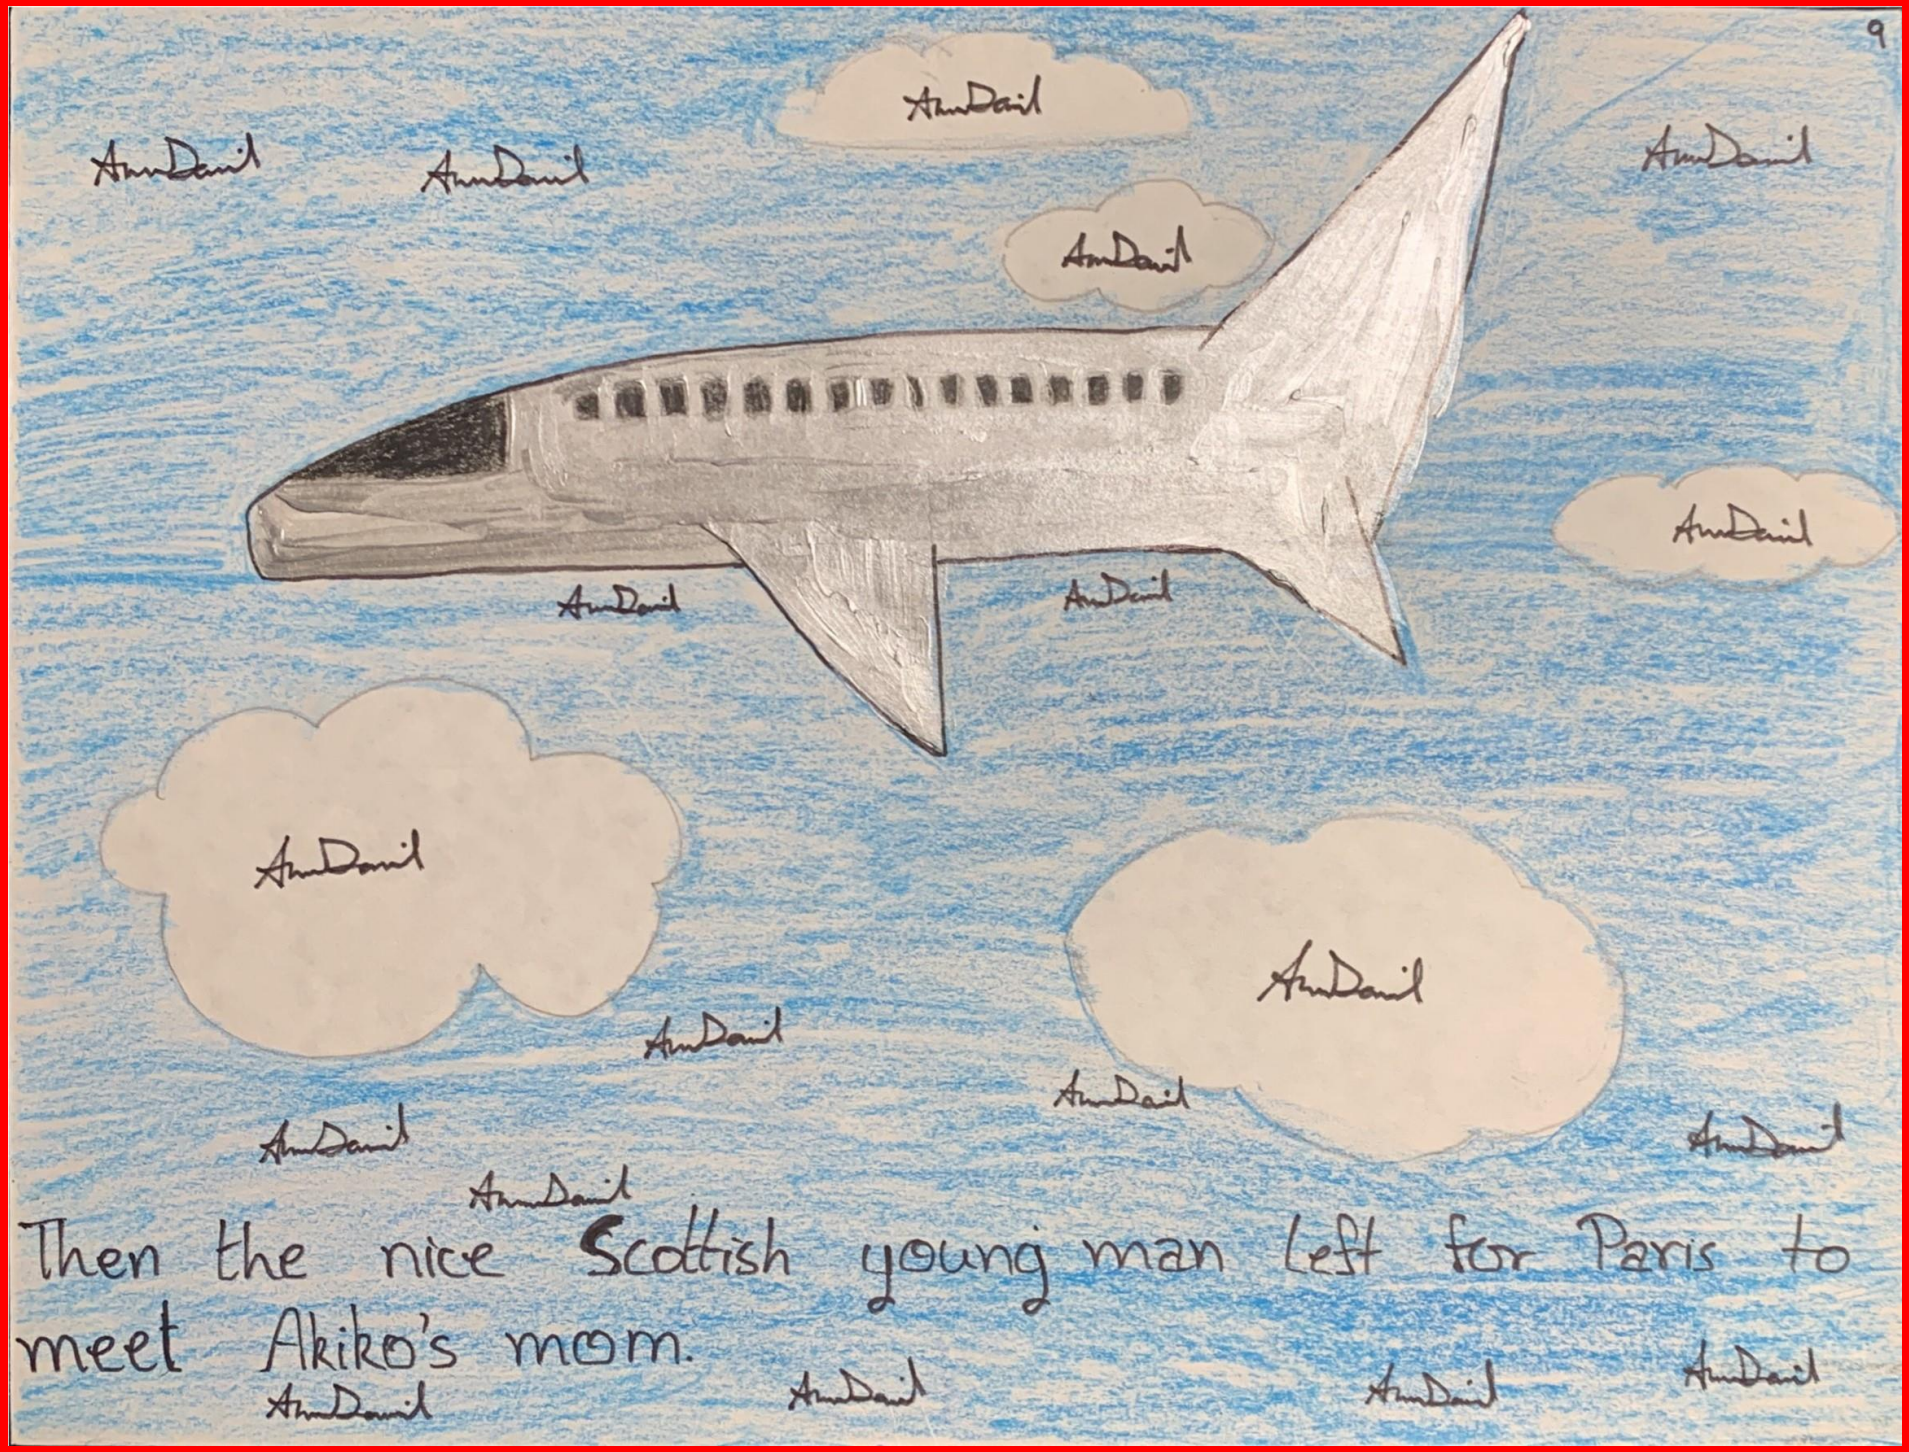
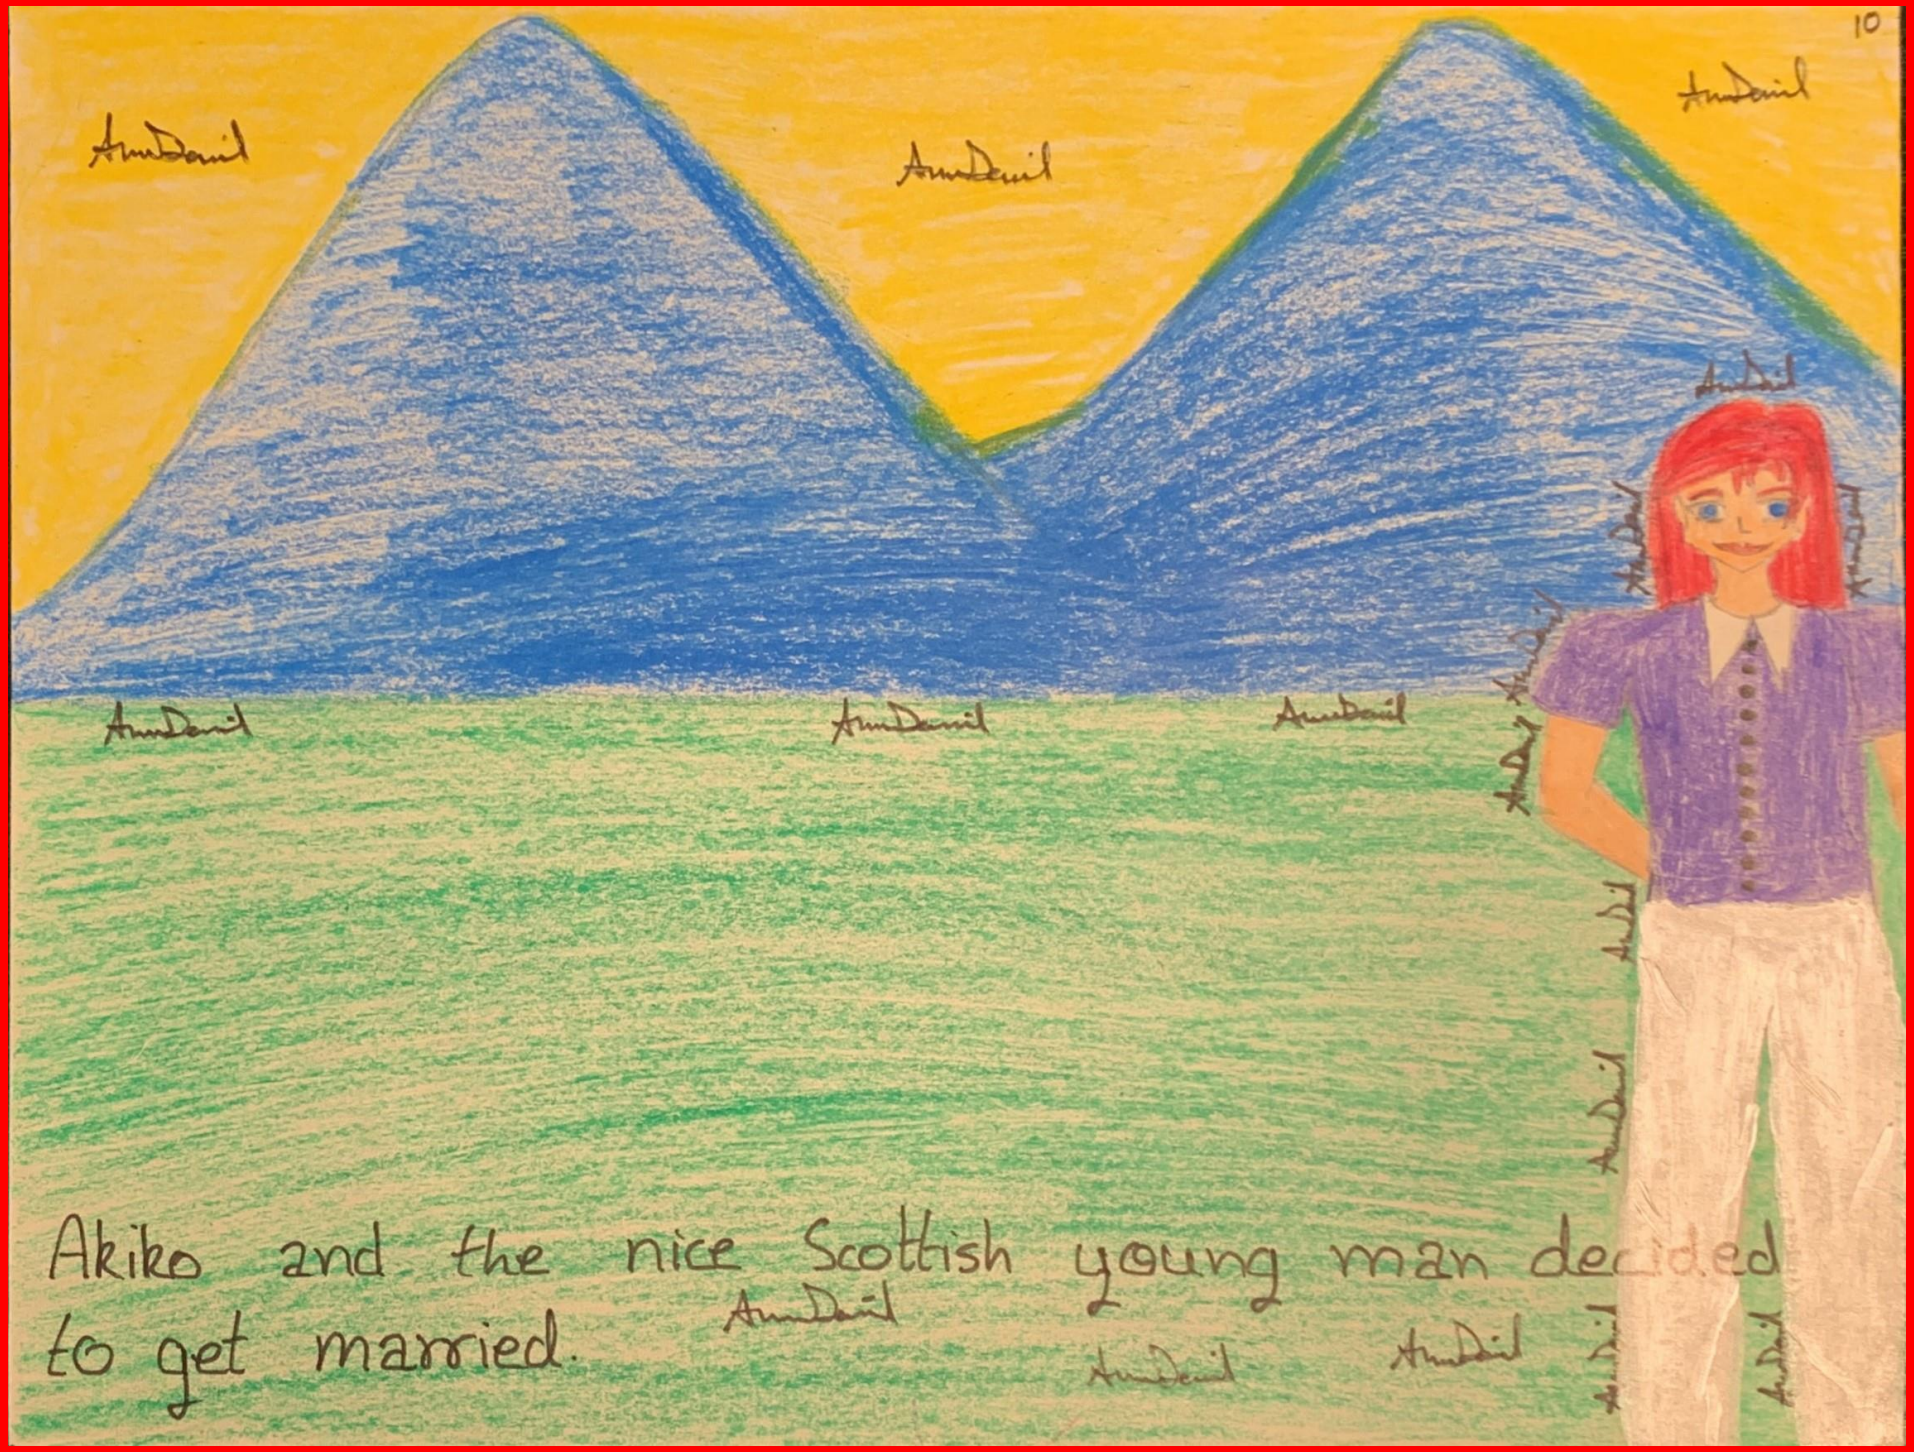
Akiko and the nice Scottish young man started talking to each other on the phone. They seemed to like each other. They talked on the phone for six months.

After six months Akiko's dad arranged for Akito and the nice Scottish young man to meet in Bombay. They had a wonderful meeting in Bombay.

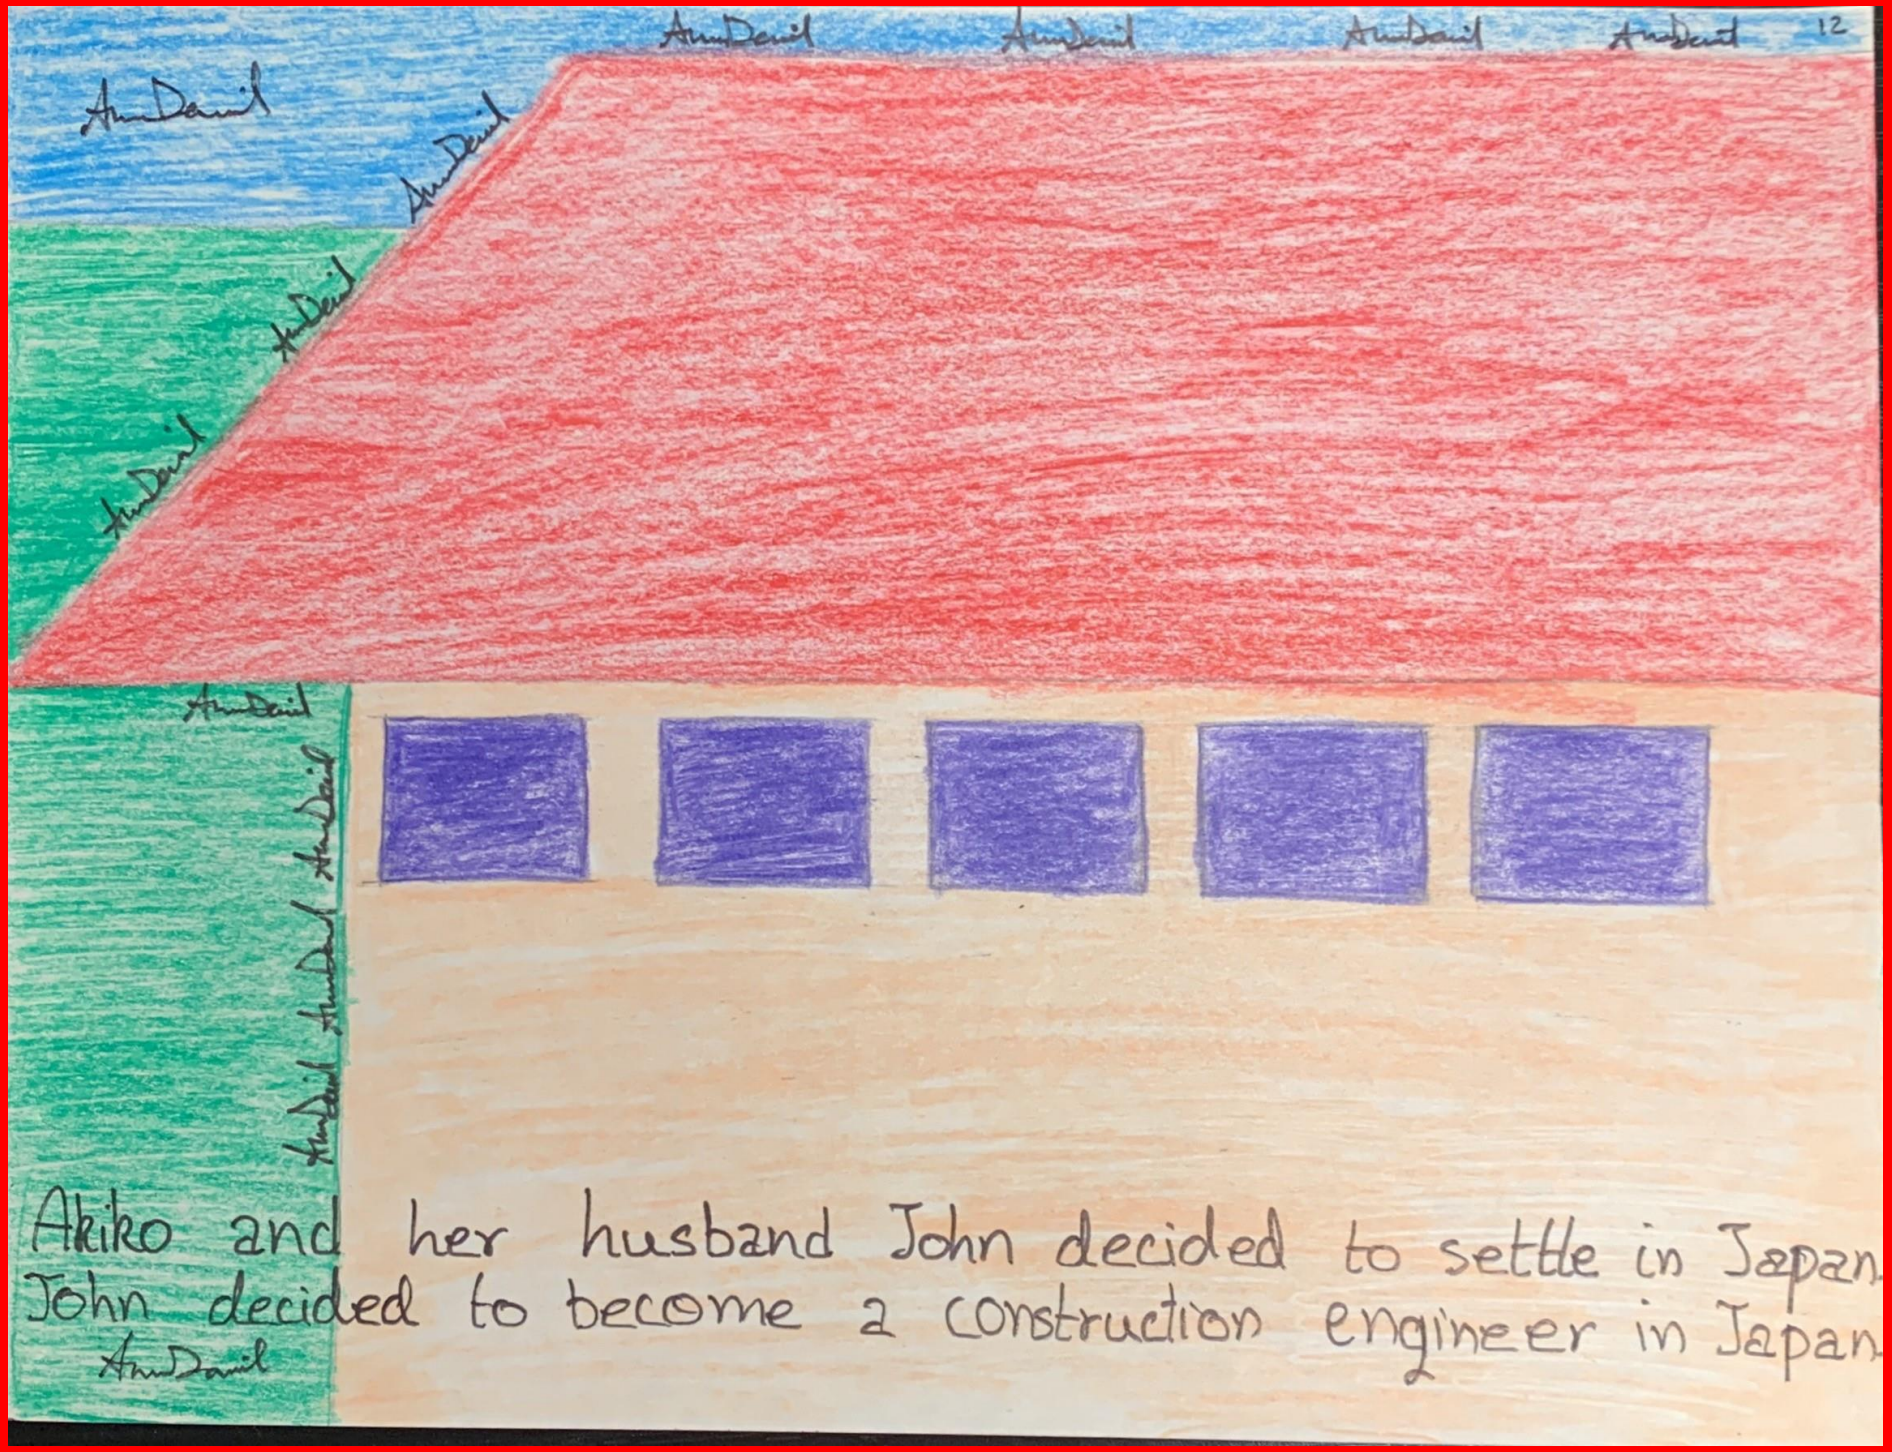


Then the nice Scottish young man left for Paris to meet Akiko's mom.



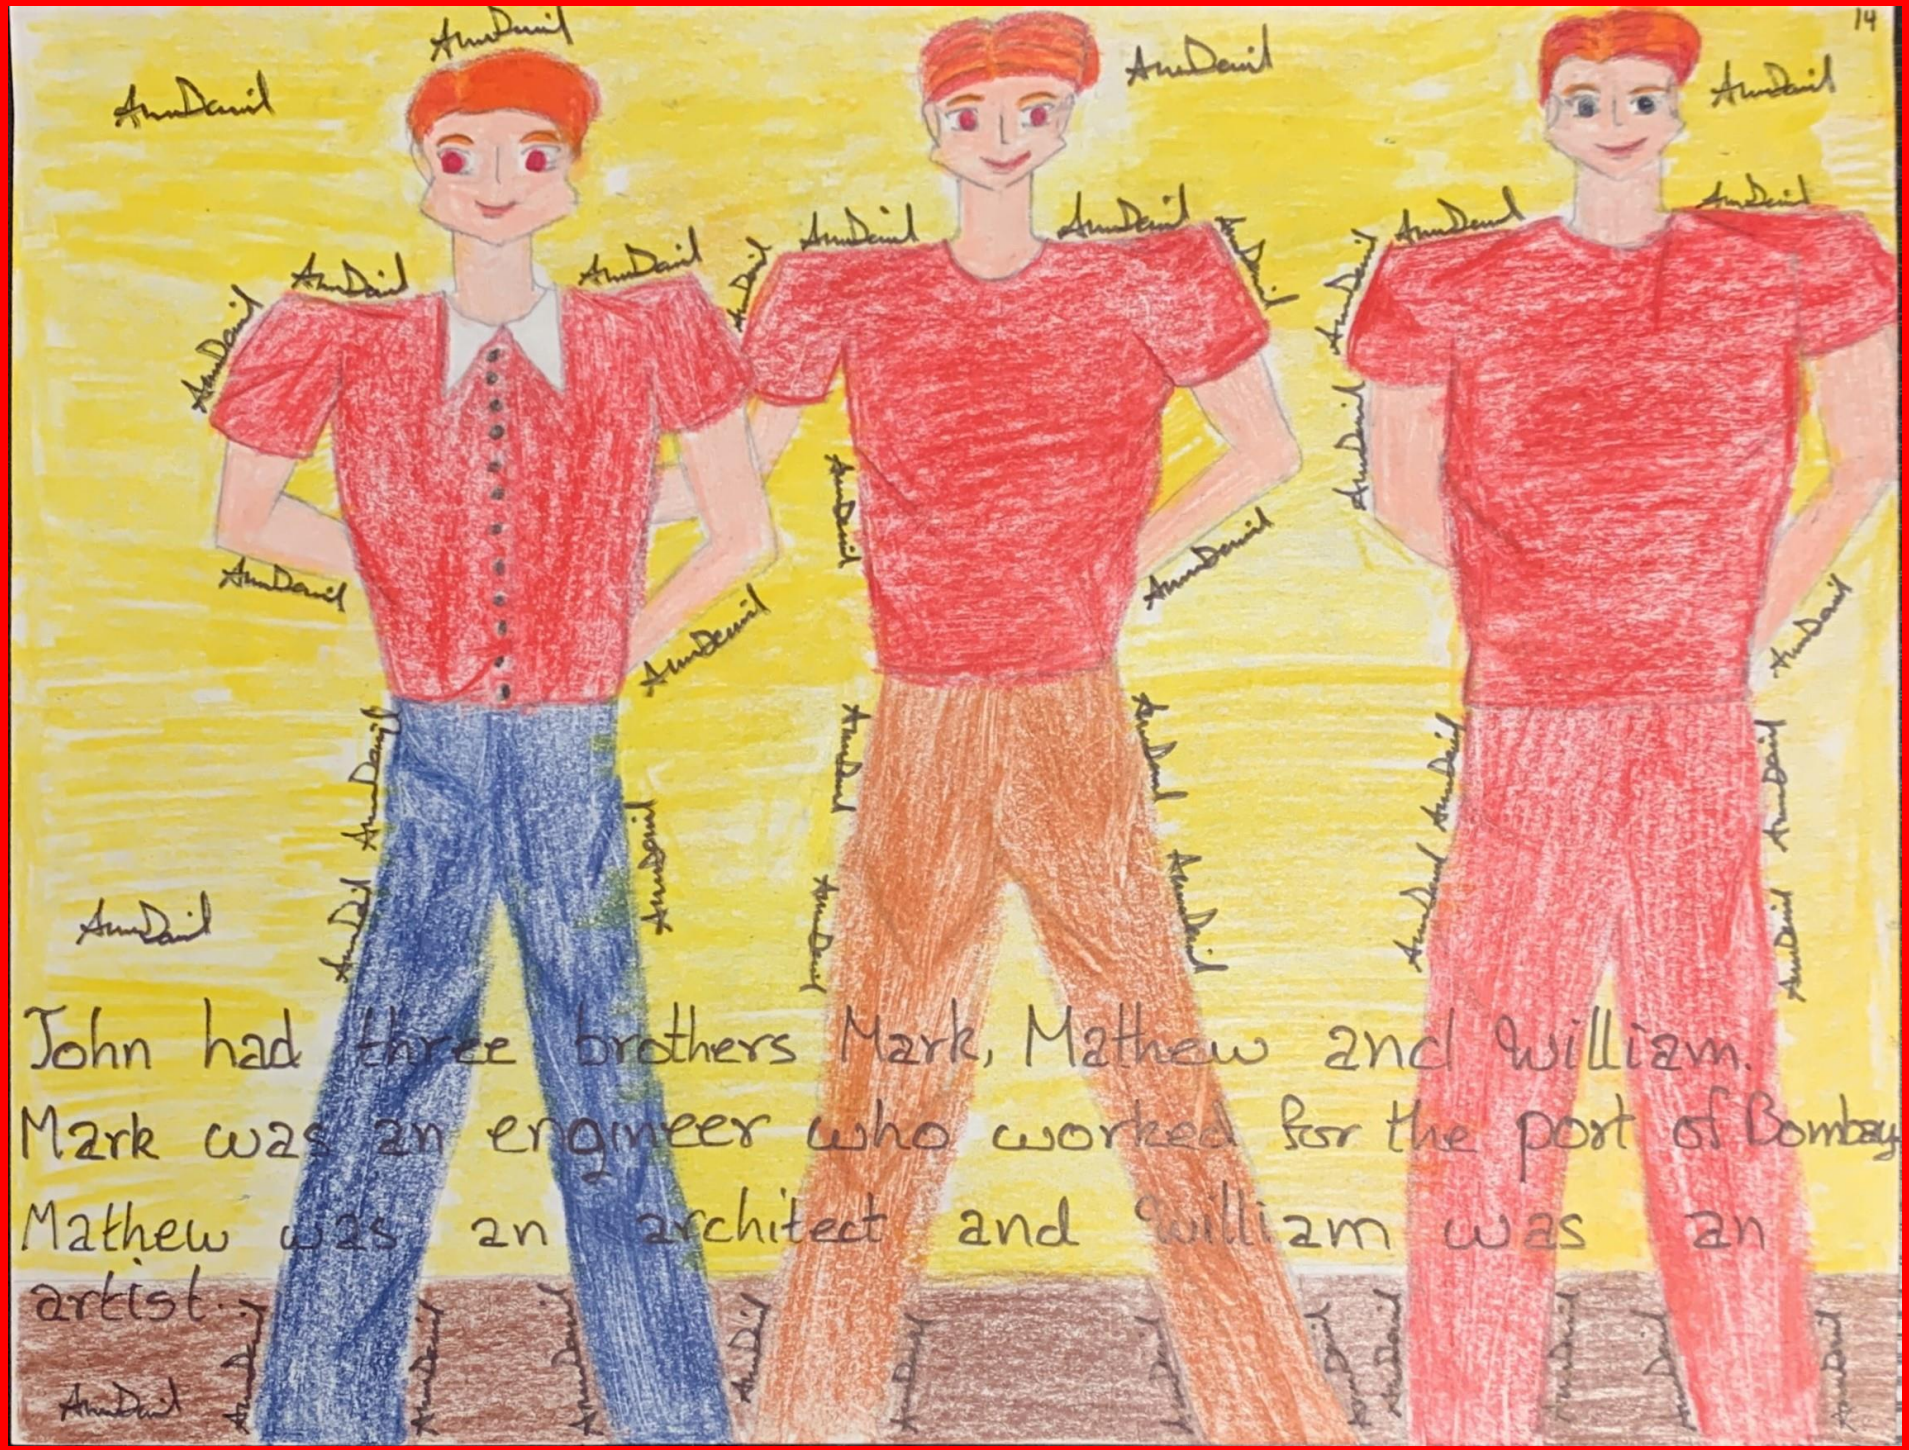
Akiko and the nice Scottish young man decided to get married.

Akiko and the nice Scottish young man were married in Japan.



12
Akiko and her husband John decided to settle in Japan.
John decided to become a construction engineer in Japan.

13
THE QUEEN'S NECKLACE
John's dad was an aeronautical engineer in Bombay.
John's mom was a chef in Bombay.



John had three brothers Mark, Mathew and William. Mark was an engineer who worked for the port of Bombay. Mathew was an architect and William was an artist.

AmDaul

Ojiisan, Obaasan, Akiko's Mom, Akiko's Dad, Akiko, John's Mom, John's Dad, John, Mark, Mathew, William