McKenna Farms Proudly Invites You to Join Us for Our 6th Annual Derby Day at the Farm!

From our famous hat contest and delicious food to Derby-inspired drinks and live music, you won't want to miss out on this one-of-a kind event hosted at beautiful McKenna Farms.

Explore the farm and visit our friendly horses, see rider demonstrations, and take part in our popular "wine toss". Don't forget to place your bets on your favorite horse as you cheer them on during the Run for the Roses— all while watching "The Greatest Two Minutes of Sports" on the big screen!

All event proceeds benefit McKenna Farms Therapy Services, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing therapeutic programs and resources supporting children and young adults with special needs and their families.

"Lucy always wanted to ride horses, but we couldn't find the right fit... until we discovered McKenna Farms. We were blown away to learn that McKenna offered not only therapeutic riding, but also services she was already receiving elsewhere. Lucy immediately began OT and speech therapies and soon she was recommended for hippotherapy and then therapeutic riding. Lucy's dreams came true in a safe, nurturing environment that gave her the support she needed."

- Jennifer, Lucy's mother

"McKenna Farms is the family we didn't know we needed! This clinic has been instrumental to Harper's progress. From the amazing therapists, the front office, volunteers and all the staff... everyone has helped support our family and get her where she is today. The support and dedication of the McKenna Farms team members are unmatched! We are forever grateful, and words will never be able to express how special all of you are to me!"

- Jennifer, Harper's mother

For over 20 years, McKenna Farms has been an exceptional source of support for children living with developmental delays or disabilities. Providing physical, occupational and speech therapy alongside special activities like hippotherapy and therapeutic riding, McKenna Farms promotes growth and self-confidence within every child. With more than 500 clients served weekly by highly qualified specialists in this idyllic, nontraditional setting, it's easy to understand why so many families across the region have come to cherish their time at McKenna Farms.
