Activity 1. What can you hear? Listen to the story. Highlight all the words you can hear about John.

a) John Harlington   Mary Clint   Mike Spring   Jenny Owens

b) 10   14   16   20

c) Plymouth   Belfast   Lockham   Cardiff

d) A horrible city   A huge city   A big town   A charming little city

e) A stressful atmosphere   A vibrant atmosphere   Funny attractions   A peaceful atmosphere

f) Near London, England   Near Belfast, Northern Ireland   Near Edinburgh, Scotland

g) A normal teacher   A normal teenager   2 nices dogs   Normal grandparents

h) Repetitive   Exciting   So boring   Lovely

Activity 2. Present John. Complete the following sentences with all the information you have discovered about John in activity 1.

a) His name is...

b) He is...

c) He lives in ....

d) It is ....

e) The town has ....

f) It is located...

g) He is ....

h) His life is .... and ....

Your name : ……………………………………

Who is John?

Activity 3. John's portrait. Link the following words to John's features.

eyebrows •

• hair

• ears

eyes •

• cheeks

lips •

a nose •

• a mouth

Activity 4. Complete the chart. Change the singular nouns into plurals or the plurals nouns into singular.

a mouth

eyes

hair

a nose

eyebrows

cheeks

lips

ears

Singular	Plural
a mouth	mouths

Activity 5. Describe John's face.

a) Use the following adjectives and complete the sentences.

b) Highlight the adjectives.

Wordbox
Little	Big
Short	Long
Thin	Thick

1) He has got a .... face.

2) He has got .... eyes.

3) He has got .... eyebrows.

4) He has got a .... nose.

5) He has got a .... mouth.

6) He has got .... lips.

7) He has got.. ears.

8) He has got .... cheeks.

9) He has got .... hair.

> ! Remember! English people stress the most meaningful words in a sentence (the words conveying the most important pieces of information : adjectives, verbs and nouns depending on the context).