Scène 1 – The treasure chest

➤ Apprends le texte et interprète-le avec un ami ou une amie.

Chips : Look, Fish! It's not a rock. Let's find out what it is.

Fish : It's a wooden treasure chest!

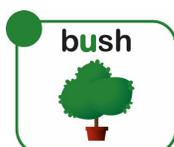

Chips : It looks old.

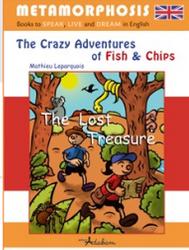

Fish : It's a pirate's treasure for sure!

Chips : What are you waiting for? Open it!

Fish : Oh! There are a parchment and a map in the chest.

Chips : There also three orange pearls.

Scène 3 – The secret passage

➤ Apprends le texte et interprète-le avec un ami ou une amie.

Fish : Woh ! The view is amazing !

Chips : It's so hot ! The place is huge. We'll never find the treasure !

Fish : Don't say that ! Look at the engraving on the cliff.

Chips : It's magical. This is an Aboriginal man with a flute in his hand, right ?

Fish : The flute is a didgeridoo, isn't it ?

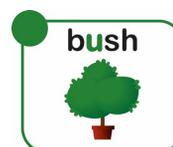

Chips : Yes it is. Look ! There are holes in it.

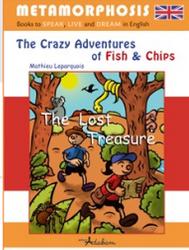

Fish : You're right. Place the orange pearls in it !

WHOOSH !

Chips : It's a secret passage !

Fish : Take a torch and let's go !

Fish : Look, Chips! There is the engraving of a snake on the cliff.

Chips : What does it mean?

Fish : Maybe it means we should pour water on the sculpted snake?

Chips : Good idea! Let's try it!

A secret door opens!

Fish : Look! There's a new treasure chest.

Chips : Oh no! It's a joke! It's the same chest!

Fish : It's strange! How do we open it?

Chips : There's a didgeridoo in the nook. Let me try!

Whoosh. The chest opens.

Fish : Woh! It's beautiful! What a treasure!

Chips : A gold flute with mosaics showing animals and traditional masks!

Fish and Chips together : It's wonderful!

Scène 2 – The Aboriginal wise man

➤ LE DÉFI ! Écris un dialogue entre Fish, Chips et l'homme aborigène à partir du texte ci-dessous et interprète-le avec des camarades.

« I come from the Murri Tribe. I have hidden my people's beautiful treasure. Take the map, find the sacred heart of Australia and you'll find the treasure.

Place the three orange pearls in the magic didgeridoo.

May the Rainbow Serpent guide you. »
