

Proclamation

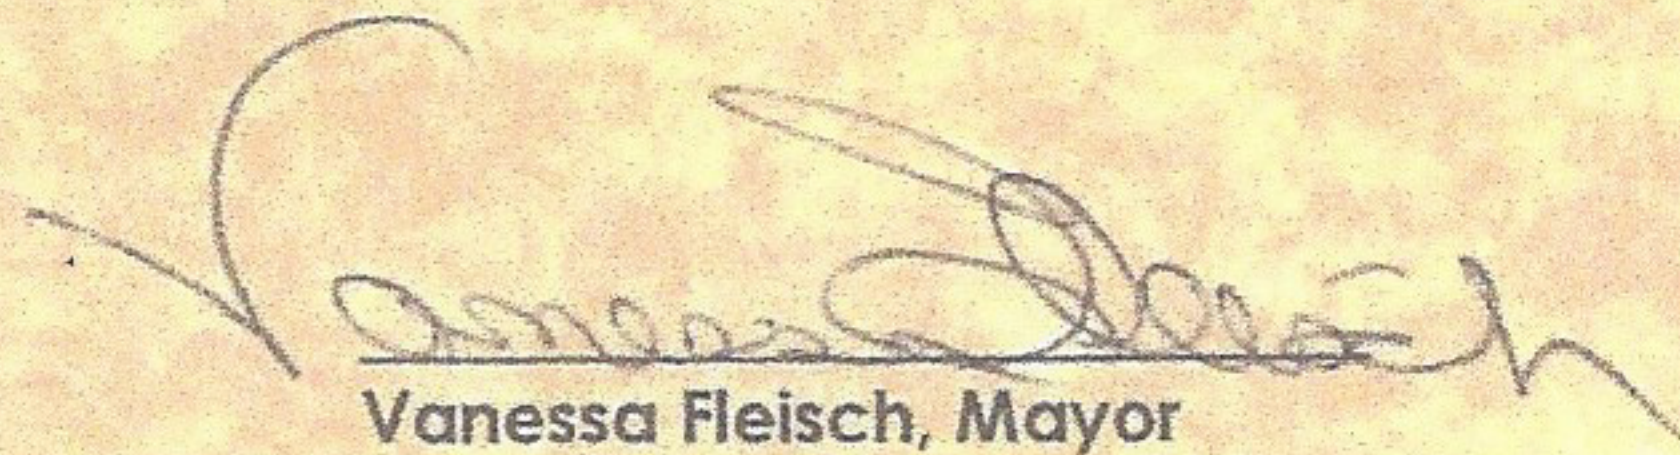

National Veterans and Military Families Month

- Whereas: Peachtree City salutes the brave and dedicated patriots who have worn the uniform of the United States and celebrates the extraordinary military families whose selfless service and sacrifice make our military the finest in the world; and
- Whereas: Generation after generation of men and women have answered the call to defend our country and our freedom, facing danger and uncertainty with uncommon courage. It is our moral and solemn obligation to demonstrate our continuing gratitude, unwavering support, and meaningful encouragement; and
- Whereas: Our heroes have always relied on their families for strength and support. Serving alongside our men and women in uniform are spouses, siblings, parents, and children who personify the ideals of patriotism, service above self, and honor; and
- Whereas: As our service members deploy around the world in support of combat and contingency operations and as they bring much-needed relief in the aftermath of natural disasters, our military families stay strong and resilient at home; and
- Whereas: During this month where we traditionally give thanks for our blessings, it is also fitting to honor and thank our veterans and military families for their service to our country.

Now, Therefore, I, Vanessa Fleisch, Mayor, on behalf of the City Council of Peachtree City, do hereby proclaim November as National Veterans and Military Families Month, and encourage our citizens to acknowledge and honor the service, sacrifices, and contributions of veterans and military families for what they do every day to support our great City and Nation.

Proclaimed this 15th day of November 2018.

Vanessa Fleisch, Mayor
