

112 East Washington #1

112 East Washington #2

112 East Washington #3

170 W. Washington #4

175 W Cedar St #5

175 W Cedar St #6

175 W Cedar St #7

204 W. Bell #8

204 W. Bell #9

219 W. Wash. #10

144 W Washington St A1 Auto Parts #11

544 N. Sequim Ave Museum #12

544 N. Sequim Ave Museum #13

1. 112 East Washington Over The Fence

OLIVER W. HAMILTON 1915 Oliver was born to Chester and Elizabeth (Ward) Hamilton of Sequim. His father was the last wharfman of Port Williams. Oliver served as mayor of Sequim from 1976 through 1979.

#2 112 East Washington Over The Fence

ROBERT "PISTOL" MATRIOTTI 1918-1987. He was born in Sequim to Lelio (Percy) and Josephine Matriotti. Robert was a farmer, logger and sold real estate. He married June Ryser on June 24,1944.

#3 112 East Washington Over The Fence

ALFRED "BABE" LEHMAN 1910-1985. Alfred was born to Charles and Liddy Lehman of Sequim. He married Evelyn Weekly of Dungeness and they worked at the family business. Sequim Meat Company (Lehman's).

EVELYN LEHMAN 1912. Evelyn was born to Jack and Rachel Weekly of Dungeness. She married Alfred "Babe" Lehman and worked for fifty years as bookkeeper for the family business- Sequim Meat Company and Lehman's Market (when the grocery store was added in 1960).

#4. 170 W. Washington COL Computer Solutions

MATTHEW "MATT" A. DRYKE 1959. Matt was born to Chuck and Jean Dryke of Sequim. He holds medals in two World shoots and ten U.S. Championships, and he won the 1984 Olympic Gold Medal for Olympic Skeet.

HILMER "HIL" HOLGERSON 1900-1990. He was born in Tacoma and married Lillian Olson in 1928. He came to Sequim in 1935 to build a high school addition and moved to the area in 1964. Hilmer purchased what is now called Mains Farms, creating several duck ponds on the land to satisfy his lifelong passion of duck hunting.

#5. 175 W Cedar St Sequim Museum & Arts Exhibit Center

CHARLES and LIDDY LEHMAN They came to Sequim from Germany in 1911 and founded the Sequim Meat Company (Lehman's).

HERBERT LEHMAN 1904-1978. Herbert was born in Germany to Charles and Liddy

JOSEPH C. BOWEN 1948. Joseph was born to Jack and Betty (MacGregor) Bowen of Sequim. His parents were school teachers in Sequim and his mother and

6. 175 W Cedar St Sequim Museum & Arts Exhibit Center

WILLIAM "DOC" GORDON William was a good father and pharmacist. He died in 1973.

#7. 175 W Cedar St Sequim Museum & Arts Exhibit Center

NICOLE "NIKKI" ROWLAND 1964-1991. Nicole was born to Jerry and Gleynda Brownfield of Sequim, fifth generation to the Brownfield's and fourth to the Matriotti family. She married Dan Rowland.

#8. 204 W. Bell Thrift Shop Sequim Dungeness Hospital Guild

HELEN B. (LEFEBVRE) SINDARS 1922- 1995. Helen was born in Alberta, Canada, and married Fred E. Sindars on Valentine's Day, 1942. She and her husband took part in many civic and political affairs.

FRED E. SINDARS 1918-1992. Fred was born to Guy and Leota (Hatfield) Sindars of Dis-coverly Bay. He married Helen Lefebvre in 1942. Fred is credited for developing space-related parts and systems and holding joint patents. He initiated the installation of historical flags at Pioneer Park.

#9. 204 W. Bell Thrift Shop Sequim Dungeness Hospital Guild

ALFRED "ALFIE" ROBB, JR. 1916-1996 Alfred was born to Alfred and Caroline Robb of Sequim. He was a truck driver for the Sequim Creamery and owned and operated his own dairy farm "Almona" until 1970.

RAMONA LOUISE ROBB 1928. Ramona was one of thirteen children born to William and Alice Heaton of Sequim. She graduated from high school in 1947 and

#10. 219 W. Washington St BrokersGroup Real Estate Professionals

RICHARD "DICK" JARMUTH 1921 1987. Dick was born to Douglas and Laura Teresa Jarmuth of California. His family moved to Sequim during the Depression. He established Jarmuth Electric in 1956 and served on Sequim's City Council.

SHIRLEY "CRAZY LADY" LARMORE 1927. Shirley was born to Robert and Irene Mackay of Missouri. She founded the JimmyComeLately Gazette (Sequim Gazette) in 1974 and Peninsula Magazine (Washington Magazine) in 1986.

#11. 144 W Washington St A1 Auto Parts

OLLIE (CAYS) TRIPP 1904-1992. She was bom to Richard and Anna Ballard of Oregon. In 1923, at age 18, she traveled by train to Forks to join her brothers. She married Orrin Cays that year and moved to Agnew. She worked at the Sequim Bakery.

RAYMOND "RAY" FISHER 1915-1995 Raymond was born to Ralph and Effie Fisher of Iowa. He was taught to fly by a barnstormer, had his first aircraft at age 16, and made his career in general aviation.

SHAWNE JOSEA JACKSON 1968-1989. Shawne was the son of Reverend Jefferson and Sydney Jackson. Shawne had a wonderful sense of humor and those who knew him, loved him.

#12 544 N. Sequim Ave Sequim Museum & Arts

ORRIN "SKINNY" CAYS 1887-1947. Orrin was born to Perry and Carrie Cays of Illinois. He married Ollie Ballard in September of 1923 and they made their home in Agnew.

BENJAMIN "BEN" GLENN GILBERT, JR. 1933-1995. Ben was born to Benjamin and Doris Gilbert of Port Townsend. He joined the Sequim Police Department in 1976. He was a dedicated and respected police officer.

#13. 544 N. Sequim Ave Sequim Museum & Arts

KELSEY CAITLIN FINNIGAN 1988. Kelsey was born to Andy and Kathy Finnigan of Cali-fornia. She and her family moved to Sequim in 1987. One of Kelsey's favorite memories is hav-ing the 1996 school bond pass on her birthday.

JAMES "JIM" PATRICK DINAN 1928- 1991.James was born to Daniel and Anne Dinan of New York. He owned Thurston's Apparel, served two terms as the mayor of Sequim and several years on Sequim's City Council.

HARRY O 1981-1993. Harry O, a terrier mix, was adopted by Judith Winthrop. Harry O took classes in obedience, acting and agility. She was a true friend.

WILLIAM "BILL" H. KNAPMAN 1924. William was born to Henry and Clarabelle Knapman of Sequim. He married Ruby "Snooks" Nelson of Sequim in 1965 and chose farming and raising cattle as his lifelong career