J. Peruzière

RÉCOMPENSES RATINGS

JAMES SUCKLING

93 pts

(May 2023)

« This is what you should look for in the appellation. A precise, well-balanced and vertical Condrieu with notes of peaches, melon, white flowers and bay leaves. Medium body with ample volume on the palate and bright acidity. Good tension and balance with a flavorful, mineral finish. Drink or hold. »

Millésime 2020

JEB DUNNUCK

9I pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

«Some bright citrus, tangerine, spice, and distinct minerality emerge from the 2020 Condrieu J. Denuzière, a vibrant, still tight, inward Condrieu that's going to benefit from a year in bottle. I like its purity as well as its length, and it's clearly an outstanding Condrieu .»

JANCIS ROBINSON

15,5/20

Alistair Cooper (November 2020)

"Heady peachy nose. Weighty palate with good fruit and moderate acidity – ripe and full in style with an opulent finish".

Millésime 2018

JEB DUNNUCK

89-91 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2019)

«The 2018 Condrieu J,Denuziere looks to be an outstanding wine. Terrific notes of honeyed peach, pineapple and brioche. Solid depth and density on the palate.»

JANCIS ROBINSON

15/20

Richard Hemming (November 2019)

« Juicy, smoky palate with toasty notes on the length. »

The Wine Enthusiast

93 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« The nose of this wine is subtle and earthen, taking more time to open than its ebulliently perfumed, showstopper peers in Condrieu. But with time and aeration, it reveals glimpses of apricot and orange mousse, along with a breath of white flowers. Full bodied yet freshly balanced, it highlights primary peach and yellow-cherry flavors kissed by toast and vanilla. It's ready to drink now and best enjoyed through 2026 .»

THE WINE ADVOCATE

92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2018)

« White pepper, ginger and citrus notes mark the nose. While it's plump on the palate with melon and apricot flavor and long, spice-driven finish. »

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

92 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (January 2020)

« Bold yellow apple and pear on the nose of this wine are accented by hints of sweet spice, earth and stone. It's a rounded, silky wine edged by honey and marmalade but fresh on its feet too. This vibrant Condrieu is approachable now »

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 pts

Anna Lee (January 2019)

« Creamy swirls of vanilla-orange ice cream and honeydew melon dominate this unctuous but pertly balanced Viognier. The finish is long and tangerine scented.»

Millésime 2015

WINE SPECTATOR

94 pts

(November 2018)

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(October 2016)

« Mango juice, guava greet the drinker here on the nose, a tropical bounty, with a glistening air of ripeness. The palate sits comfortably on smoothy delivered white fruits, peach notably, with a note of cooked lime, some late tang. »

Millésime 2014

Vinous

9I pts

Josh Raynolds (March 2016)

« Ripe pear, nectarine and melon on the deeply perfumed nose. Juicy and expansive on the palate, offering fresh honeydew and pit fruit flavors braced by a suggestion of bitter lemon pith. A subtle mineral nuance comes in slowly and adds vivacity and zesty cut ».

La Revue du Vin de France

9I pts

(Avril 2023)

« Le fruit apparaît très mûr au nez, presque décadent. La bouche confirme cette maturité mais ne bascule pas vers des notes confites. L'équilibre reste vif et la finale s'étire bien.»

JEB DUNNUCK

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

90-92 pts

« The 2019 Hermitage J.Denuzière should be an outstanding wine. Lots of black raspberry and cassis fruits as well as spice and exotic flower notes emerge from the glass. It has an elegant style on the palate with a bright acidity ».

JANCIS ROBINSON

16,5/20

Alistair Cooper (November 2020)

« Intense black fruit, white-pepper and pencil-shavings nose with fresh fig underneath. A surprising amount of zesty lively acidity for such a blockbuster powerful vintage. Cool blue fruits and finely grained tannins with a moderate finish ».

JANCIS ROBINSON

17 + /20

Richard Hemming (November 2019)

« Sweetly oaked nose gives toast, smoke and charcoal alongside dense black fruit and full-on. Thick and heavy.»

JEB DUNNUCK

93+ pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2019)

« The 2018 Hermitage reveals a deep purple color, has smoking good concentration, a rounded expansive texture and a great finish. It's still an infant and needs 4-5 years of bottle age, but it should see its 20th birthday in fine form ».

THE WINE ADVOCATE

90-92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2019)

« The 2018 Hermitage features modest berry and mint aromas, then explodes into plush layers of creamy mixed berries on the full-bodied palate.»

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

94 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« The nose of this wine is subtle and earthen, taking more time to open than its ebulliently perfumed, showstopper peers in Condrieu. But with time and aeration, it reveals glimpses of apricot and orange mousse, along with a breath of white flowers. Full bodied yet freshly balanced, it highlights primary peach and yellow-cherry flavors kissed by toast and vanilla. It's ready to drink now and best enjoyed through 2026.»

JEB DUNNUCK

93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2019)

« The 2017 Hermitage comes from a mix of lieux-dits on Hermitage Hill. It offers a ruby/purple color as well as spice-laced notes of red and black currants flowery incense. Complex, medium to full-bodied and nicely balanced.»

THE WINE ADVOCATE

9I-93 pts

Joe Czerwinski (October 2018)

« The 2017 Hermitage is a pretty, red-fruited rendering of the appellation. Redcurrants and cherries pick up just hints of crushed stone and cassis in this full-bodied wine. It's delicious. »

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 pts

Anna Lee (January 2021)

« Blackberry and blueberry flavors are zesty and spry, accented by hints of peppery spice and bramble. Matured 18 months en barrique (30% new oak), it's a weighty, expansive Syrah but restrained and intently mineral. Though quiet in its youth, it should gain depth and power from 2030 and drink well for years beyond »

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 pts

Anna Lee (January 2019)

« It's forward in fruit but accented by faint whiffs hints of leather and earth too. Luscious fruit and easy tannins. »

Millésime 2015

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 pts

Anna Lee (January 2019)

« The nose of this wine is opens to reveal intensely ripe, almost preserved notes of black plum and chewy. It's a richer, more fruit-forward style of Hermitage than what's typical. »

DECANTER

9I pts

Matt Walls (October 2017)

« Bright florals and densely packed fruit. Rostead element works well with the fruit and shows potential. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

93 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2017)

« Lovely aromas of cedar, baking spices and cherries appear on the nose of the 2015 Hermitage. This is a full-bodied wine with rich tannins, a creamy-supple texture and a long finish. »

TIM ATKIN

92 pts

Matt Walls (2016)

« An elegant and pure style with toasty grilled bread and roasted spices on the nose and palate. There is a good concentration and a long silky finish. Elegant wine. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

90-92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2017)

« Blackcurrants, raspberries, asphalt and roasted herbs define the 2015 Hermitage. Rich, full-bodied and ripe, with good tannin quality. »

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(October 2016)

« The nose is full, sturdy, has a brothy air of black berry, ripe fruits with a note of damp earth. The palate is grounded, holds chunky matter. »

Millésime 2014

THE WINE ADVOCATE

92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2016)

« Classic, straight, firm style and beautifully concentrated. Notes of graphite, powdered rock, licorice and loads of black and blue fruits. »

VINOUS

90-91 pts

Josh Raynolds (March 2016)

« Brilliant purple. Perfumed aromas of blackberry, boysenberry, violet and smoky minerals. Seamless and gently sweet in the mouth, offering energetic dark berry and cherry cola flavors. Gains richness and spiciness with air. »

JEB DUNNUCK

9I-93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

"Another impressive 2020 Côte Rôtie, the 2020 Côte Rôtie J. Denuzière reveals a dense purple color as well as ripe, pure red and blue fruits that give way to more spice, cured meats, sandalwood, and integrated oak with time in the glass. Medium to full-bodied, it's nicely concentrated, has ripe tannins, and is just a classy, balanced wine that's going to offer plenty of pleasure over the coming 15 years or so".

JEB DUNNUCK

90-92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« The 2019 Côte-Rôtie J.Denuzière offers classic Côte-Rôtie elegance in its red and black fruits, cedary spice, and flowery incense aromas and flavors. It should come together nicely in bottle. »

JANCIS ROBINSON

17 + /20

Alistair Cooper (November 2020)

« Cedar oak spice and violets with cloves on the nose. Vibrant palate with fine tannins and cedar spice notable – fantastic freshness and vibrancy, already quite approachable and the oak is evident but integrated ».

Millésime 2018

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

95 pts Editor's Choice

« Vibrant, perfumed Syrah. Matured for 15 to 28 months in large-format casks, it offers a rich core of raspberry-coulis and red-currant flavors struck by crisp acidity and very fine, mouthcoating tannins. The finish lingers on a subtle kiss of smoke and cedar. While approachable now, it should gain nuance through 2030 and hold further.».

JEB DUNNUCK

9I pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« Côte-Rôtie 2018 J.Denuzière has integrated its élevage and come together nicely, offering lots of spicy red and black fruits, cured meats, dried flowers and incence. Enjoy over the following decade or so »,

JANCIS ROBINSON

16,5/20

Richard Hemming (November 2019)

« Prominent oak spice on the nose gives vanilla and clove flavours. It keeps the fruit tightly under wraps. »

La Revue du Vin de France

15,5/20

(Juin 2019)

« Le nez se veut léger, aérien et frais, faisant oublier l'impact solaire du millésime. La bouche est fine avec une agréable fluidité et des tanins poudrés. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

90-92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2019)

« Denuziere's 2018 Cote Rotie delivers plenty of finesse and elegance. It's cedary but balances out the oak with attractive floral notes, hints of black tea and ripe raspberries.»

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

96 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (January 2020)

« Medium bodied in style, it's fresh and fruity in its youth but nuanced by earthen tones of bramble, anise and crushed granite. A perfumed beauty with fine, smooth tannins, it drinks beautifully already but is concentrated enough to improve through 2030. »

JEB DUNNUCK

92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2019)

« The 2017 Côte-Rôtie showed well with a more modern style that still carries plenty of Côte-Rôtie character. Plenty of red and black fruits, chocolate, spice and flowers incense. Good purity of fruit and terrific overall balance. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

89-92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (October 2018)

« Dark fruited, the 2017 Côte-Rôtie is concentrated and richly tannic. Loaded with plum and blackberry fruit accented by clove and allspice, it's intense and savory on the finish. »

La Revue du Vin de France

17/20

(Juin 2018)

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(December 2018)

« Very dark robe, varnish, red meat, blueberry fruit feature in a closed, sturdy nose, aspects of vegetal in it. It's wide across the glass. »

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93 pts

(April 2019)

« Opulent notes of roasted plum and black cherry, smoke and violet perfume the nose of this wine. The palate is silky, concentrated in black-fruit flavors. Fresh fruit and smooth tannins. »

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(November 2017)

« The nose runs broadly on sun-filed black fruits. It goes nicely long with its fruit moving into detail, cassis style little berries, as it ends. Good promise here. »

SAKURA WOMEN'S WINE AWARDS

(2017)

Silver Medal

WINE ENTHUSIAST

95 pts

(April 2019)

« This profoundly perfumed Syrah offers heady notes of dried sage, thyme and arid earth against a blackdrop of succulent baked plum. Densely concentrated black-fruit flavors seem edged by spicy notes of chocolate and cinnamon. »

WINE SPECTATOR

95 pts

(November 2018)

DECANTER

90 pts

Gearoid Devaney – Simon Fields – Matt Walls (October 2017)

« A big beast of monumental structure displaying clove, cola and lovely intensity of fruit. The oak is present through intense spices which gives great authority on the finish. »

SAKURA WOMEN'S WINE AWARDS

(2017)

Gold Medal

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(November 2017)

« The nose is inky, pulpy, squid-like, freely laced with oak produces a mix of violets, bluebells, cutting-black cherry fruit. It's a full polished start. The palate runs with stylish. »

GUIDE HACHETTE DES VINS

(2018)

« Ce 2015 dévoile un nez bien ouvert sur des fruits noirs et du cumin. En bouche, il apparaît ample, chaleureux, charnu et long, épaulé par de beaux tanins veloutés. »

Millésime 2014

WINE ENTHUSIAST

94 pts

Anna Lee (January 2019)

« Dried garrigue, smoky granite and bramble lend an earthen tone to ripe but restrained black plum and cassis in this medium-bodied Syrah. »

VINOUS

90-91 pts

Josh Raynolds (March 2016)

« A sexy, highy perfumed bouquet evokes dark berry liqueur, incense and fresh violet. Smoke and spice notes build in the glass. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2016)

« Deep, rich and surprisingly concentrated for a 2014, with gorgeous blackberry, plum, charred meats and crushed rock aromas and flavors. I suspect will drink well for 10-12 years. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE 90-92+ pts Jeb Dunnuck (December 2015)

« Looks to be outstanding. It has solid density and depth. One of the more impressive barrel samples I was able to taste in 2014. This was my first exposure to the wines from this estate and I came away impressed. »

JEB DUNNUCK

9I-93+ pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

« The 2020 Cornas J. Denuzière gives up a classic Cornas nose of scorched earth, leather, pepper, and camphor, followed by red and blue fruits that blossom with time in the glass. Medium to full-bodied, it's ripe, has polished tannins, no hard edges, and a great finish. It's unquestionably an outstanding Cornas in the making".

Millésime 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

9I-93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« Lots of spice, dry-aged meats, leather and smoky red and black fruits emerge from the 2019 Cornas J.Denuzière. It has some chocolatey background oak, ripe tannins and a fleshy, rich and expansive mouthfeel.»

JANCIS ROBINSON

16/20

Alistair Cooper (November 2020)

« Very ripe dark fruits, blackcurrant, liquorice. A rounded palate that is supported by really vibrant acidity, finely tuned tannins and surrounded by sweet and ripe black fruits. More in the fruit-led, easy-drinking rather than savoury style ».

JEB DUNNUCK

92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« I loved the 2018 Cornas J.Denuzière. This complex, layered Cornas gives up a medium ruby hue as well as lots of spiced red and black fruits, peppery herbs; new saddle leather, acacia flowers and dried herbs. Nicely balanced on the palate. Beautiful 2018.»

JANCIS ROBINSON

17,5/20

Richard Hemming (November 2019)

« Beautifully peppery nose with streaks of stemmy aroma and a lovely bloody ferrous note too. Sophisticated fruit, stemmy finish with a burst of acidic refreshment enlivening the finish. »

La Revue du Vin de 16-17/20 France

(Juin 2019)

« Nez magnifique suggérant le poivre blanc, une végétalité et les fruits noirs sauvages. La bouche est élégante dans un style bourguignon, avec une fraîcheur tendue. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE Joe Czerwinski (December 2019) 91-93 pts

« A solid effort, Denuziere's 2018 Cornas does a nice job capturing the essence of Cornas without tipping over into overripe fruit. It's peppery and spicy up front, with a savory-herbal edge to the blackberry flavors.

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

94 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« Firm strikes of ore and scorched bramble lend complexity to piercing blueberry and blackberry flavors in this wine. It's a svelte medium-bodied Syrah yet plush and satiny on the palate. Pure in fruit, it finishes on a lingering white peppercorn note and fine-grained, upright tannins. Delicious young the wine should improve for at least a decade and hold longer still.»

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

94 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (January 2020)

« Lavish and full bodied, this intensely ripe but structured Syrah offers dense, concentrated flavors of plum compote and mulberry. A powerful wine framed by ripe, penetrating tannins, it's a robust accompaniment now to heartier meals.»

JEB DUNNUCK

9I pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2019)

« Terrific with pretty slightly lifted bouquet of spice box, violets, new leather and sweet red and blue fruits. It's medium to full-bodied, has solid balance and fine tannins and a kiss of minerality on the finish. »

SYRAH DU MONDE

(2019)

Médaille d'argent

PAOLO BASSO

Sommeliers International (Octobre 2020)

« Un très beau nez aux arômes de baies avec une belle maturité (myrtilles, mûres, groseilles). La bouche est savoureuse et soutenue par une belle acidité et des tanins présents. La finale est intense. »

WINE ENTHUSIAST

96 pts

Anna Lee (Avril 2019)

« Ripe, robust blackberry and plum are adged by hints of candied violets, garrigue and tobacco box in this powerfully concentrated Syrah. It's ample and velveteen on the palate. »

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(November 2019)

« The nose has a smoky pine, varnish air above its collection of black berry fruits. It is direct as it stands, a clean-cut Cornas. »

Millésime 2015

WINE ENTHUSIAST

96 pts

Anna Lee (January 2019)

« Whiffs of blackcurrant candy and violet abound on this gorgeously perfumed Syrah. Rich blackcherry flavor. Silken tannins extend a long finish. »

WINE SPECTATOR

93 pts

(November 2018)

DECANTER

9I pts

Gearoid Devaney, Simon Field, Matt Walls (October 2017)

« Playful and young, this Cornas is showing herbal blackcurrants and fresh cherries alonside a slight reduced note. Classic grainy savoury tannins give that beguiling wild fruit grip. »

WINE ADVOCATE

90-93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2016)

« What should be a solid value, the 2015 Cornas sports a deep, saturated purple color and terrific aromatics. Sexy and layered texture with full-bodied richness. »

JOHN LIVINGSTONE-LEARMONTH

(October 2016)

« It's long and decisive Cornas. The nose has a broad filled aroma of black berry fruit, extends into prune ripeness. The palate has a dark red berry take. »

JAMES SUCKLING

90 pts

James Suckling (May 2023)

« Lots of blueberry fruit and a robust structure enable this syrah to make a bold statement, but these two sides of the wine are both quite assertive. In particular, the firm tannins will needs some time to resolve. Bold, emphatically dry finish. Drinkable now, but best from 2025. »

Millésime 2020

JEB DUNNUCK

9I-93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

« I loved the nose on the 2020 Saint Joseph J. Denuzière, which has a Côte Rôtie-like perfume of black raspberries, exotic spice, dried flowers, and bacon fat. Hitting the palate with medium to full-bodied richness, it has ripe, yet building tannins, good overall balance, and a great finish. It's going to benefit from a few years of bottle age but should have 10-15 years of overall longevity.»

Millésime 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

9I-93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« Rocking notes of cassis, ground pepper, barbecue smoke and background oak. Medium-bodied textured with sweet tannins, It's certainly an outstanding wine well worth seeking out.»

JEB DUNNUCK

92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« This pretty, peppery, complex Saint Joseph has wonderful purity of fruit, ripe tannins and a great finish. It is a pure, seamless 2018 with loads to love. »

JANCIS ROBINSON

16,5/20

Richard Hemming (November 2019)

« Traditional and rustic with grainy tannins and some polish aromas that suggest acetic influence. »

PAOLO BASSO

Sommeliers International (Octobre 2020)

« Un nez au caractère solaire avec des arômes de prunes, de mûres sauvages et de poivre noir. Une bouche savoureuse avec une structure solide qui garde de l'élégance. Une finale souple qui donne beaucoup de satisfaction au palais. »»

VINUM

16/20

Barbara Schroeder (Octobre 2020)

« Nez complexe, herbacé, fruité-épicé aussi; prélude velouté, rond en bouche, tanins corsés et mûrs, finale longue, fruitée-épicée; vin bien équilibré. »

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

92 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« This stony, deeply mineral Syrah balances crisp cassis and black-cherry flavors against a deeply earthen core. It's opulent in texture but stately, uplifted by tangs of salt, iron and granite. The finish is framed by soft, easing tannins making it approachable young but it should drink at peak through 2026. »

Millésime 2017

THE WINE ADVOCATE

90-92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2018)

« The 2017 Saint Joseph combines attractive notes of baking, cracked pepper, black olive and black cherries. Medium to full-bodied, it's soft and velvety on the palate, finishing fresh and long. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2017)

« The 2015 Saint Joseph was in top forme during this blind tasting. There is a lovely mix of cherries and blueberries on the nose. Creamy-supple mouthfeel and delicate tea-like notes. »

THE WINE ADVOCATE

90-92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (December 2016)

« This beauty is medium to full-bodied, rich, layered and beautifully textured. It has a wealth of fruit and no shortage of tannins. »

John Livingstone-Learmonth

(October 2016)

« Blackberry, blueberry and oak feature on the nose, the fruit having a crisp style, a lithe punch about it. The palate gives an inky content with a fresh, minted run of cool black fruit, a good granite sense of place. »

JAMES SUCKLING

92 pts

James Suckling (May 2023)

"A very saline and delicate St.-Joseph with stone fruits, some cooked lemons and fresh flowers. Medium body with a succulent and elegant character. Some crunchy fruit yet it has a minerality that dominates on the palate and into the precise finish. Drink or hold."

Millésime 2020

JEB DUNNUCK

90 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

"Honeyed pineapple, sappy herbs, and chamomile-like nuances all emerge from the 2020 Saint Joseph Blanc, a juicy, medium to full-bodied, nicely balanced white with lots to love. It has solid richness yet still stays fresh and lively on the palate".

JEB DUNNUCK

93 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« The 2019 Saint Joseph J.Denuzière Blanc is cut from the same mold, yet has a touch more honeyed notes of peach, lemon and pineapple, with a beautiful sense of minerality and a subtle reductive character on the palate. An elegant Saint Joseph Blanc. »

Millésime 2018

JEB DUNNUCK

9I pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« The 2018 Saint Joseph J.Denuzière Blanc is a more focused, elegant wine, offering lots of buttered lemon, crushed rock and white flower-like aromas and flavors. Nicely concentrated, with solid purity, good acidity and outstanding lenght, I like it today yet it should evolve for 7-8 years. »

The Wine Enthusiast

92 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« Delicate notes of wild thyme and sage lend smokiness to supple grapefruit and white peach in this varietal Marsanne. While medium bodied and freshly balanced, it's a satiny wine that finishes on a lingering herbal spray. Ready now, the wine should drink at peak through 2030»

JEB DUNNUCK

90-92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

« The 2020 Crozes-Hermitage J. Denuzière is incredibly floral and perfumed, with both red and blue fruits as well as spice, sappy herb, and peppery nuances. Mediumbodied on the palate, it has nicely integrated acidity and a juicy, balanced, elegant style, which is very much in the profile of the vintage »

Millésime 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

90-92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« I also loved the 2019 Crozes Hermitage J.Denuzière. It's a lively, elegant red offering plenty of red and blue fruits, notes of pepper and sappy flowers, mediumbodied richness. »

JEB DUNNUCK

90 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« The 2018 Crozes Hermitage J.Denuzière has a classic medium-bodied, ripe, meaty style just screams of the Northern Rhône. It's a peppery, exotic, solid effort to enjoy over the coming 7-8 years.»

PAOLO BASSO

Sommeliers International (Octobre 2020)

« Arômes de prunes, cerises noires, mûres et poivre noir. Une belle structure fluide et élancée en bouche et des tanins souples pour un vin qui séduit par sa persistance. »

Millésime 2017

SYRAH DU MONDE

(2019)

Médaille d'argent

Millésime 2015

WINE SPECTATOR

9I pts

(November 2018)

THE WINE ADVOCATE

92 pts

Joe Czerwinski (December 2017)

« The full-bodied 2015 offers almost Cornes-like notes of crushed stones, red plums and espresso. Richly concentrated yet supple, the savory elements linger on th finish.»

JEB DUNNUCK

92 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« The 2019 Crozes Hermitage J.Denuzière is also terrific, with notes of buttered pineapple, white flowers, citrus and a touch of salty minerality. An elegant wine with terrific balance. Ideal for drinking over the coming 4-5 years.»

Millésime 2018

JEB DUNNUCK

9I pts

Jeb Dunnuck (November 2020)

« Impressive amounts of buttered apples, peach and quince emerge from this Crozes Hermitage Blanc. A rich, medium to full-bodied, beautifully textured white. It's going to evolve nicely for 4-5 years. »

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

90 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« Tropical notes of pineapple and mango are accented by lashes of cashew and crushed granite in this dry, satiny blend of Marsanne and Roussanne. It's an ample, juicy wine packed with youthful, sun-kissed fruit but balanced neatly by soft tangerine acidity and a delicate grip of tea tannins on the finish. At peak now—2024. »

BETTANE +DESSEAUVE

OR

Prix Plaisir 2023

« Un vin agréable avec du volume, une belle longueur, et une finale complexe et intense qui témoigne de son potentiel de garde. »

« An agreeable wine with volume, a beautiful length, and a complex and intense final, proof of its ageing potential »

Millésime 2018

ANDREAS LARSSON

90 pts

Andreas Larsson (2020)

« Pure bright purple colour. Pure nose, floral with violet, dark berries, cassis and mild spices. The palate has medium weight, fine polish and freshness, unctuous fruit purity and good length, lovely drinkability and freshness.»

JEB DUNNUCK

90 pts

Jeb Dunnuck (February 2022)

« Lots of crushed rock, white flowers, and honeyed citrus notes emerge from the 2020 Saint-Péray J. Denuzière, a medium-bodied, vibrant, fresh white that still brings good depth of fruit and texture. The blend is 60% Marsanne and 40% Roussanne, brought up all in tank.»

Millésime 2018

THE WINE ENTHUSIAST

90 pts

Anna Lee Iijima (March 2021)

« Crisp yellow plum and grapefruit flavors are anchored by a smoky, earthen undertow in this moderately fullbodied blend of Marsanne and Rousssanne. Matured 12 months in stainless steel, it's a pure-fruited, thirstquenching dry white with broad appeal. At peak now— 2025. »

