

Accessibility

This website is run by Laughton Parish Council and includes some information that is a statutory requirement. We want as many people as possible to be able to use it, and we have tried to make the statutory parts of the website text as simple as possible to understand. However, we know some parts may not be fully accessible to those with a disability, and we have prepared an Accessibility Statement which gives advice what to do if you have difficulty finding the information that you require.

This Accessibility Statement has been prepared by Laughton Parish Council as required by The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC).

The Commission is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to a complaint, you should contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS), at <https://www.equalityadvisoryservice.com/app/ask>

Accessibility statement for Laughton Parish Council website Home \(laughton-parish-council.co.uk\)

This website is run by Laughton Parish Council for the benefit of both the village and the general public, and we want as many people as possible to be able to use it. Much of the content is of a general nature, of interest to both residents and tourists. It also contains information of a statutory nature, i.e. that the Parish Council is obliged by law to provide to the public.

How accessible this website is

We know that some parts of this website, particularly the general ones, are not fully accessible but we've tried to make at least the statutory parts of the site as simple as possible to access and understand. If you have a disability and find that you cannot access parts of this website, there are two things that you can do.

1. Alternatively you can ask us to provide information from this website in a different format, such as accessible PDF, large print, easy-read, audio recording or braille. To do so, contact the Parish Clerk:

Mrs Lynette Kemp

Clerk to Laughton Parish Council

19 Lullington Close Seaford East Sussex BN25 4JH

laughtonclerk@gmail.com

Tel: 07864637274

We will consider how best to fulfil your request and get back to you in 7 working days.

Disproportionate burden

It is very difficult for a small Parish Council to make its website completely accessible. We have assessed the costs involved and have concluded that doing so now would be a disproportionate burden within the meaning of the accessibility regulations. We will make another assessment when considering the next update to the website.
